TO DIE ON JUNE 12

Court Sets New Execution Date For Mass Killer

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — The Nebraska Supreme Court Friday set June 12 as the new date for the execution of condemned killer Charles R. Starkweather.

The court specified the electrocution should take place between the hours of 12:01 a.m. and 11:59 p.m. This is the fourth appointment with death made for the 20-year-old ex-garbage hauler who has admitted involvement in 11 killings — 10 of them during a bloody rampage 16 months ago — and has been convicted in one of them.

Previous execution dates, the last one May 22, only 98 minutes before the bow-legged gunman was scheduled to be strapped in the electric chair — all were set aside.

Starkweather heard the news by radio in his prison death cell.

"I know what you've come to tell me," Greenholtz quoted him as saying when the warden stopped by the cell shortly thereafter. "I already heard it."

Starkweather showed no particular emotion, the warden reported.

The court set the new execution date in response to a formal request filed earlier Friday by Nebraska Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck.

A matter of hours before the new execution date was set, Guy Starkweather, father of the condemned slayer, announced he would try to win a writ of habeas corpus from Lancaster County District Court.

At the same time, he disclosed he had telegraphed the United States Supreme Court, asking its intervention in the case.

Acting Penitentiary Warden John Greenholtz said he would arrange for the execution to take place as early as possible, probably a few minutes after midnight.

The case went back to state authorities Thursday after three federal Circuit Court judges turned down his appeal for a writ of habeas corpus. He had appealed to the Circuit Court after the U.S. district court turned him down.

Court Names Lawyers For Long Hearing

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A battery of court-appointed attorneys may represent Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long at a sanity hearing June 16.

Probate Judge Hugh Gibson issued a formal order Friday for the hearing and said it was for "the best interests of Earl K. Long as a mentally ill person."

Mrs. Long signed an application earlier asking that the 63-year-old governor, flown here last Saturday in a high-hush trip, be committed for mental treatment.

She filed the application after Long showed signs of wanting to leave John Sealy Hospital. Gibson issued an earlier order committing Long to the protective custody of the hospital.

SLATES HEARING

Gibson set the hearing for 10 a.m. in the Galveston County courthouse annex. The hearing will follow Texas law in that Long can be present and be represented by attorneys.

Gibson appointed attorneys Adrian F. Levy Sr., a former Galveston mayor; Fine Bedford, a well-known civil attorney; and Jean Hoseney, a former Texas state legislator.

The judge indicated, however, that Long can be represented by anyone he wishes. Gibson said he appointed legal counsel for Long because he had not heard from the governor or his family.

Louisiana attorney general Jack Gremillion, Long's top legal advisor, was reported out of town at Baton Rouge, La., but his office said it had received no communications from Galveston.

Gibson answered reporters questions and said the hearing could be called off if Long submits voluntarily to continued treatment. First reports from the hospital (Continued On Page Six-A)

Sniper Is Slain By State Officer

HAZARD, Ky. (AP) — A state police trooper killed a sniper near a loading ramp in the eastern Kentucky coal fields Friday night after he fired several times at the trooper.

The dead man was identified as Bobby Jenkins Jr. of Vico.

State police said the shooting came after a group of snipers had fired at trucks hauling coal to the Kodak Coal Co., at Montgomery Creek. Kodak is operated by Stamper Collins, a leader in resistance to signing of the 1959 United Mine Workers contract.

States Rights Bill Is Given Green Light

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Rules Committee cleared the way Friday for a House showdown on an administration-opposed bill to limit the authority of federal courts to strike down state laws.

The committee, which channels legislation to the House floor, voted unanimously to give a green light to House action on the measure, which was sponsored by its chairman, Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-Va.).

It acted after a brief hearing at which the measure was praised as a necessary reaffirmation of states' rights and condemned on grounds it would create "confusion."

At the same time, he disclosed he had telegraphed the United States Supreme Court, asking its intervention in the case.

Acting Penitentiary Warden John Greenholtz said he would arrange for the execution to take place as early as possible, probably a few minutes after midnight.

The case went back to state authorities Thursday after three federal Circuit Court judges turned down his appeal for a writ of habeas corpus. He had appealed to the Circuit Court after the U.S. district court turned him down.

Atlanta Ordered To Desegregate

ATLANTA (UPI) — A two-judge federal court Friday ordered Atlanta to desegregate its public schools "within" a reasonable time.

The court swiftly issued a decree granting an injunction to Negro plaintiffs against discrimination in admitting pupils to schools here on the basis of race or color. And it told the defendant city school board to present an integration plan that will not discriminate against Negroes.

No specific date was set, but the court instructed that the integration plan be presented "within a reasonable time." The city served notice of appeal immediately.

Hearing of the historic Atlanta school case took only one day, and the decree was handed down shortly after the hearing was concluded.

AMONG LEGISLATORS

Opinions Differ On Long's Future

BATON ROUGE (AP) — Is Gov. Earl Long's political future crumbling behind the walls of a Galveston, Tex., psychiatric clinic?

Many legislators commenting on the delicate question thought it was too early to evaluate.

Some thought Long may be dead in politics. Others said no member of the Long dynasty ever could be counted out.

Lawmakers interviewed showed compassion for Long in his difficulties.

They were asked: What do you think about Gov. Long's personal and political situation?

OPINIONS GIVEN

There was feeling that Long may not be back for some time. There also was the attitude that he will pop back into the Capitol soon, the same old Earl.

"Maybe we ought to set up an evacuation route," one senator loudly and waggishly said during a Senate recess discussion on the probability that Long would storm back soon.

Here are the opinions given by the lawmakers, selected with the aim of giving as many shades of political allegiance as possible:

Sen. C. H. Downs of Alexandria — "I've never known a Long to be politically dead — certainly not the governor. He is my friend and I'm his. I hope he recovers in the shortest time possible and returns to carry on his duties as governor."

Rep. John Garrett of Claiborne Parish — "I think he probably will be back to take over the governorship before the end of his term. How it will affect him politically remains to be seen. At this time, I can't foresee him being a serious contender even if he would qualify to run for reelection."

House speaker Robert Angelle, a top Long leader and representative from St. Martin Parish — "As far as I'm concerned, Gov. Long is still at the head of the Long administration — being replaced temporarily by Lt. Gov. Frazier. I hope he will be back soon. If the gov-

Seven Are Indicted In Smuggling Plot

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Dominican consul, a Miami policeman, a Tampa flier and four Northern men were federally indicted Friday for conspiracy to smuggle arms to the Dominican Republic.

Prosecutors said they hope to arraign all seven next Friday.

The charges stemmed from seizure May 22 at Miami International Airport of a plane laden with guns and ammunition reportedly destined to help Fulgencio Batista dislodge Fidel Castro, who overthrew Batista's Cuban government.

Indicted were five persons arrested when the plane was seized, plus two men not previously named.

The latter are Charles Collier, alias Larry Lamarca, of Union, N.J., and Sidney Neubauer, New York lawyer.

The other three indicted were Auguste Ferrando, Dominican Republic consul at Miami; Joseph Liquori, Miami policeman; Leonard Trento, Newark, N.J.; Dominic E. Bartone, for whom the district attorney's office listed addresses at Toledo, Ohio, and Cleveland, Ohio; and Samuel E. Poole Jr. of Tampa. Bartone was identified as the plane's agent and Poole as its pilot.

Julio Laurent, identified by the government as chief of naval operations in Batista's Cuba government, was named as a coconspirator but was not indicted.

The indictments said Liquori and Ferrando offered customs agents William B. Lankford and Wallace Shanley money to let the arms be shipped out of this country.

Herter Hurls Hot Blast At Soviet Plan

Charges Spy Net Seeks To Avert Berlin Freedom

GENEVA (UPI) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter charged Friday that the East German Communists have organized more than 200,000 spies and informers to achieve "complete overthrow" of freedom in West Berlin, West Germany and the free countries beyond.

Herter coupled his scathing indictment of East Germany at the foreign ministers conference with the declaration that Russia's plan to turn West Berlin into a "free city" is a bald attempt to gain what the Reds could not achieve with their 1948-49 Berlin blockade.

His 40 minute speech at Friday's semi-public sessions of the ministers was the West's answer to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's charges of Western spying and subversion in West Berlin.

MAJOR BID

It also represented a major Western bid to break the sudden Soviet freeze at the conference, which apparently was ordered by the Kremlin while Nikita S. Khrushchev plots new strategy.

Herter presented data from Western counter-intelligence agencies to paint a picture of an East Germany dedicated to the proposition of undermining and subverting vast areas of the free world.

Herter said that in East Germany alone it was "reliably estimated" that 26,000 officers and 200,000 agents and informers are operating against "West Berlin and the Federal Republic of Germany."

Plot To Blow Up Passenger Train Fizzles

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — A suitcase full of dynamite — capped and fused by an expert, authorities said — was placed on the Rock Island Railroad tracks here early Friday, shortly before a passenger train carrying 200 persons was due over the spot.

The dynamite failed to explode, apparently because the train wheels cut the fuse. No passengers were injured. A special car on the train was carrying R. E. Johnson of Chicago, vice president in charge of operations of the Rock Island and a former general manager here.

"The dynamite was put there to blow up the train," investigators said. "It was capped and fused by an expert."

After the train wheels severed the 12-foot fuse and the train had gone on, authorities said, the fuse was lighted again. It went out after burning down to the blasting cap.

West Des Moines Police Chief George Shuck, a demolition expert said he could not determine what had prevented the fuse from detonating the charge after it was lighted a second time.

"But it's a good thing it didn't go off," he added. "There was enough dynamite there to blow the train into scrap metal." The streamlined train, bound for Chicago, had just left downtown Des Moines.

Officials said at least 43 persons were killed and more than 100 others were injured in the jolting smash-up.

The officials feared the casualty toll would rise as rescue crews clawed their way through the twisted wreckage for bodies believed to be trapped.

The tracks at the crash scene were littered with splintered wood, broken glass and passengers' belongings scattered by the impact. Some of the bodies were thrown clear of the train coaches.

The trains were travelling in opposite directions on the same track. Officials said one of the trains had been switched to a siding, but through error had been switched back to the main line as the second train approached.

Group Suggests Ban On Parking

The traffic - parking committee of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce yesterday recommended that all parking on DeSiard Street from South Grand to Sixth Street, and one block north and south of DeSiard, be eliminated.

The proposals were made to Monroe Mayor W. L.

"Jack" Howard, Chief of Police James C. Kelly Jr., and Chamber officials at a 3 p.m. meeting in the Chamber offices at the Virginia Hotel.

Off - street, metered parking lots were suggested as a substitute for the present street parking.

The Northeast Louisiana trade area would have "easier access" to downtown Monroe, and "local traffic congestion and parking problems would be alleviated greatly," pointed out George Rorex, committee chairman.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Eight recommendations were made to Howard to present to the City Council, that parking be eliminated on the following streets:

DeSiard, on both sides, between South Grand and Sixth Street, with a two-way traffic plan put into operation; North Grand Street, on each side between DeSiard and Jefferson; South Grand Street, both sides, between DeSiard and Grammont, and continuing on South Grand on the west side as far as Wood Street.

Both sides of St. John Street between DeSiard and Grammont; North Second, each side between DeSiard and Jefferson; Jackson, both sides between DeSiard and Grammont; North Fourth, both sides between DeSiard and Jefferson; Catalpa, both sides between Grammont and Wood.

VANISHED 16 YEARS AGO

Names Of Missing On Plane Revealed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon made public Friday night the names of crewmen last known to be aboard a B24 bomber which made an amazing landing in the Libyan desert 16 years ago.

The plane, wholly untouched, was reported found recently by a team of exploring geologists. There was no trace of the crew. An Air Force spokesman in Wiesbaden, Germany, speculated that the crew had bailed out after a bombing raid on Naples in 1943, and that the plane landed on its own.

In making public the names of the crewmen, the Pentagon said it had not yet determined how they are listed in casualty records. That information is contained in stored files.

The Army said the mystery wreckage was that of a bomber which left Soluk, Libya, on April 4, 1943, for a high-altitude bombing mission against Naples, Italy.

The intended course toward the target was not known nor was it known whether the plane actually reached its target, the Army said.

The wreckage was located about 380 miles south of Benghazi.

The Army is investigating the case because during World War II the Air Force, then called the Air Corps, was part of the Army.

A two-man team from the mortuary service headquarters at Frankfurt, Germany, flew to the area on May 11. An aerial survey has been made and a ground search of the area was planned. Army headquarters here said.

In making public the names of the crewmen, the Army explained that the addresses and next of kin are taken from 1943 files, presumably.

3 Children Of Couple Not Harmed

CROSSETT, Ark. (Special) — A 34-year-old Crossett father of three is dead, and his estranged wife is in critical condition, after a shooting at Lonoke near Little Rock yesterday.

Sheriff Warren C. Minton of Lonoke said that Eugene Watt, 34, fatally wounded himself in the right temple with a shotgun blast, after he apparently fired the gun at his wife, Mrs. Dixie Nell Watt.

She was staying with her mother, Mrs. Roscoe Bryan, at the mother's motel on highway 70, five miles west of Lonoke.

Mrs. Bryan told Minton that she awakened yesterday morning and heard a commotion in the motel office. She entered, found her daughter slumped to the floor with a bullet wound in the left temple, and saw Watt walking out the door.

"She called to him and said to give himself up to the police, then rushed to summon a aid from a motel tenant," the sheriff continued.

BLAST

Another blast from outside sent her running outdoors where she saw Watt lying next to his truck, with a wound in his right temple. He died two hours later in University Hospital at Little Rock.

Mrs. Watt was rushed to the same hospital in critical condition, and was given little chance of survival last night.

The couple's three children, Larry Eugene, 10, David Richard, 4, and Donna Gayle, 8, were staying with their mother, but were not harmed.

Watt was a native of the Crossett area, and had worked as a machinist at a bag company here until eight months ago, when he left for Hot Springs.

From there, he went to Little Rock, eight miles from Lonoke, and was employed as a mail truck driver.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Crossroads Cemetery near here, with burial under direction of Jones Funeral Home of Crossett.

In addition to his wife and children, Watt is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Watt, three brothers, Alvin Watt, Everett Watt and Edward Watt, all of Crossett and three sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Neal and Mrs. Gladys Hamm, both of Crossett, and Mrs. Robbie Lee Bryant, Hot Springs.

Police In Cuba Announce Revolt Plot Is Smashed

Atlanta Ordered To Desegregate

ing of schools immediately upon court orders to integrate.

Observers felt the full impact of the ruling Friday would not be felt until 1961, allowing time for a full course of appeals.

Judges Boyd Sloan and Frank Hooper made clear prior to hearing testimony and arguments they could do nothing but grant the desegregation injunction asked by the 10 Negro plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs' request, a class action on behalf of all Negro citizens of Atlanta, was for an injunction against operation of Atlanta schools on a segregated basis, and against refusal by the city board of education to admit Negroes to certain schools solely because of race or color.

Over plaintiffs' objections, the court permitted Rep. James C. Davis (D-Ga.) to testify for the defense that when schools in the District of Columbia were integrated there was a serious let-down in standards of behavior, discipline and opportunity of pupils to learn.

Davis said District of Columbia teachers told of fights, stabbings, beatings, sex offenses and destruction of school property in the wake of desegregation and that there was a large-scale migration of the white population out of the district.

Defense efforts at the hearing were directed largely at showing the pattern of school segregation in Atlanta is by choice, and has not been ordered officially by the defendant school board.

Hooper, however, issued the court's preliminary ruling based upon the act that the public schools here are segregated.

He said merely that it is "common knowledge" that Atlanta's schools are racially segregated and have been for 90 years. School board Attorney B. D. (Buck) Murphy said segregation has not been ordered by the school board.

"We categorically deny" that there has been any official action by the school board, defendant in the case, to segregate pupils by race or to discriminate against Negroes, Murphy said. He contended that Atlanta pupils attend schools of their choice, and said there was no allegation that any of the 10 Negro plaintiffs that their children had applied or been denied admission to an all-white school.

Hooper read the court's preliminary ruling, saying that "this court cannot at this time make any other ruling except a ruling to the effect that the operation of racially-segregated public schools in Atlanta violates the 14th Amendment."

"To make any other ruling would only add to the confusion that already exists in the minds of so many of our good citizens and to build up in the breasts of our citizens hopes of escape which would soon be torn to shreds by our appellate courts on review."

The Atlanta case is significant as the first legal assault upon Georgia's drastic segregation laws under which all public schools in the state might be closed if integration is ordered. Teachers might be jailed for teaching integrated classes in Georgia.

Also Atlanta, a metropolis of one million population, is torn between opposing factions—ardent segregationists and those who would accept integration rather than have the schools shut down. Most of rural Georgia, where die-hard segregation sentiment is prevalent, seeks to prevent any integration in Atlanta.

Observers expected a speedy decree by the two-judge court. But it was doubtful whether appeals could be carried through in time to affect the opening of schools here for the 1959-60 term next September.

The preliminary ruling Friday was interpreted as a clarifying, time-saving device by the court. It set forth an explanation of the request for an injunction to forbid Atlanta "from operating (public schools) on a racially-segregated basis and enjoining the defendants from refusing to permit the minor plaintiffs to attend any public school in the city of Atlanta which they are otherwise qualified to attend solely because of their race and color."

Hooper's ruling said the court is "bound" by the Supreme Court's 1954 school segregation decision and decisions of the high court in "many other cases."

It said that "even the most ardent segregationists, though bitterly opposed to such ruling, now recognize that racially-segregated schools are not permitted by law. Even the Legislature of Georgia and of other states recognize that the ruling of the Supreme Court constitutes the law on this question."

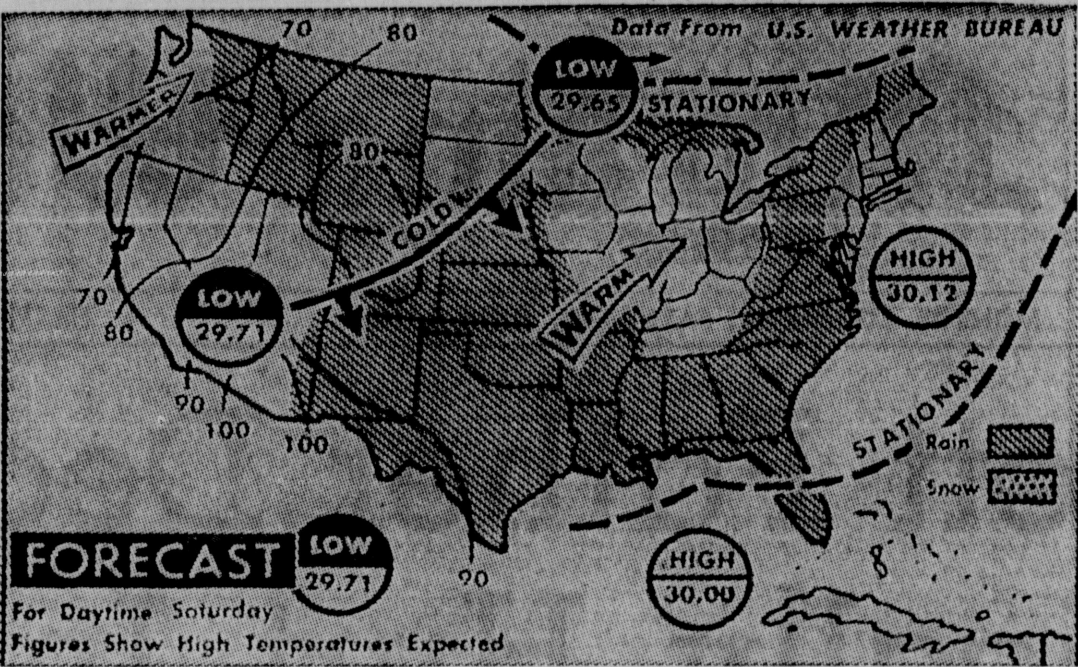

Dr. Rufus E. Clement, Negro member of the Atlanta School Board, worked a crossword puzzle while waiting to testify. Called to the stand, he said the school board has operated schools limited to white pupils and Negro pupils and that this policy prevails.

Two cars collided at the intersection of South Third and Plum streets just before noon yesterday, slamming one of them against a telephone pole and leaving a driver slightly injured.

Police identified the injured driver as Margie D. Smith, 31, 705 S. 3rd St. They said she was headed south on South Third.

The other driver identified by police as Arthur S. Harrelson, 20, 1309 S. 2nd St., was headed west on Plum St. according to officials.

Officers said Harrelson told them he slowed for the intersection but did not stop as he did not see any cars approaching.

The Smith car was thrown against a telephone pole, police said, and the woman complained of a pain. There were no visible signs of injury police added.

Harrelson was issued a traffic ticket for reckless driving.

Group Suggests Ban On Parking

Downtown Monroe Improvement Association.

One main purpose of the association would be to create new off-street metered parking lots.

The committee recommended that the city take immediate steps "to fully evaluate the feasibility of placing the parking ban into operation, that is, with the availability of off-street parking lots in the offering."

"Downtown Monroe proper occupies approximately 1-10 of the City's area, yet from a property taxation standpoint — this small perimeter pays 15 per cent of the City - at large ad valorem taxes," Rorex said.

This means that if the Downtown area is not retained as a scene of prosperity and value, that the whole economic structure of Monroe suffers directly, he said.

A Chamber spokesman told the committee that some two months of background work had already been accomplished towards the development of a Downtown Monroe Improvement association, which would in the near future be implemented to create new off-street metered lots to ease into gear in a new "open" downtown street project.

In recommending that the downtown area be opened - up for vehicular traffic, Chamber officials announced that if this plan was followed that in the very near future a Downtown Beautification project could be implemented.

"The development of the suburban areas and the creation of shopping centers in Monroe and West Monroe is a tribute to the growth of the Twin City economy and, this certainly means that the downtown area will have to keep step with the "modern" trends of serving customers—that is, unless the heart of the City sits idle and forfeits its position of prominence Rorex said.

Committeemen forecasted that within a decade of genuine planning that the Downtown Monroe area would evidence a retail shopping mall, playground areas for youngsters and planned shrubby flower garden areas.

"It is apparent that when prime property owners, business leaders and City officials "join - hands" in futuristic planning, that Monroe definitely will see Downtown wash-its-face and take on an entirely new appearance," the committee said in a statement.

RUSSIANS TALK OF PEACE

Contrast Noted In Soviet World

By FRANK H. BARTHOLOMEW MOSCOW (UPI) — The present adamant position of the Soviet negotiators in Geneva, the periodic threats of Premier Nikita Khrushchev at Moscow and elsewhere, and the continuously provocative acts of the Communist satellites in China, the Near East and Germany, are in stark contrast with the attitude if the people themselves in Communism's world capital.

Soviet diplomacy and the Soviet people themselves seem to be of dissimilar patterns.

In busy Moscow the man in the street talks earnestly of world peace and the desire to be left undisturbed to complete the nation's seven-year plan for his personal welfare. This theme is so wide-spread and so frequently repeated as to negate any thought of a conspiracy of six million people to hide actual warlike intent from the foreign visitor.

The Russians are an air-minded people and more recently Khrushchev has made them rocket-conscious. He has repeatedly stated that the decisive modern weapon is the rocket. Nevertheless, to all superficial appearances the people are not being prepared for rocket warfare. There are no air raid shelters, no dress rehearsals of the civilian population for atomic warfare, no apparent fear that war is imminent.

THEATERS ARE JAMMED

Inversely, popular interest centers on the miles of new apartments under construction on a scale perhaps not equaled anywhere else in the world. Street work goes on day and night. Industries appear to be operating to capacity. The theaters are jammed, by poorly dressed people obviously hungry for a touch of beauty.

The people are well-fed. An immediate result of the end of rationing is that most of them are too fat.

Now the yearning for a few of the finer things of life is manifesting itself, possibly as a substitute for religious worship which has been made politically unpopular to a point where attendance at the surviving churches is confined to the older generation and principally to old women.

The infrequent new Western cars on the streets are immediately surrounded by silently admiring throngs. A routine reception at a Western embassy will draw a crowd across the street equal in number to a major Hollywood premiere, despite the fact that none of the embassies is in the public directories or listings.

Slowly some of the better things are coming within view of the common man. He still usually dresses in an unmatched coat, baggy pants and tieless shirt, and his wife still occasionally wears a bandana to the Bolshoi Theater, but he does go to work in the cleanest and most beautiful subway system in the world, or on foot down boulevards lined with newly planted and luxuriating green trees.

SEE BETTER WORLD

People living several to a room in present apartments, or arriving from East Berlin four to a compartment in every train, tell you that the difficulties are less than they were, that they are worth enduring because the sev-

Flying Hero Is Picked Up By Policeman

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Flying grandfather Max Conrad—a hero Thursday when he set a 7,638 mile light-plane record from Africa to California—got picked up by a cop early Friday.

"I don't blame that cop," the lanky, graying San Franciscan said. "I guess I looked like a tramp, or like I had been drinking too much."

Conrad, 56, said it happened along the highway in suburban Corona Del Mar, south of here, when he spent the night—intermittently—in a swank motel.

"I find it's best not to sleep or eat very much after a long flight," the professional plane-ferryer explained. "If I sleep an hour or so, then get up and walk, I find I can snap out of my fatigue much faster."

"I had a peach and cottage cheese salad about 9 p.m., lay down in my room for a couple of hours with my clothes, then got up to walk the salad off."

"I had to cross the highway—there were no cars coming—when this policeman drove up and asked me what I was doing wandering around at 3 o'clock in the morning."

"He was a little tough at first. Told me to get into his car and asked if I had any identification."

"All I had was my pilot's license. He said, 'A guy by that name just made a long flight. Are you related to him?' I said, 'I happen to be him.'"

"So then we had about half an hour of visiting. He wanted to talk about aviation. But I didn't feel up to much talking so I did more walking, went to bed and got up about 7 o'clock."

"I'm caught up now," he said. "I feel fine."

en-year-plan will deliver them to a better world.

"If," they say, "the warlike capitalistic world does not take matters out of our hands."

It is certain that the people of Moscow have been completely sold in the seven-year plan, to the extent that the Khrushchev regime has bet its very existence upon its ability to deliver the goods by the deadline six years hence.

Completion of the seven-year plan would become an immediate impossibility in event of World War III. Obvious even to the most casual observer among the West's approximately 40,000 tourists in the Soviet Union this year is the fact that the people do not want war and have not been emotionally conditioned for war.

An impression gained in talking with Communist boss Walter Ulbricht in East Germany is that the East German government, while under the complete control of the Kremlin, nevertheless, to the best of its ability keeps the Kremlin under pressure to force a showdown, with arms if necessary, in Germany.

EVERYTHIN TO LOSE

Russia would appear to have everything to lose and nothing to gain by precipitating a war. The same is not true from the standpoint of the East German Communists and their present precarious political situation.

Strong indication that the East German government feels it does not have popular support and could not survive a plebiscite appears in its refusal to consider free elections. The feeling in West Germany is that East Berlin at with its gloom-encompassed low living standards and slow recovery immediately adjacent to the vigorous, lively and spectacularly successful city of West Berlin.

Big Government Growth

Law and enforcement have brought about the employment of government workers since it was discovered laws — once written down—had to be enforced.

People who gaze in awe towards Washington as it mushrooms with more and more personnel on government payrolls may well ask the question, "When will it stop?"

In the community, extra policemen may be employed to curtail traffic violations or other misdemeanors. At the federal government level, it usually requires a whole bureau with a full staff of employees to enforce a new Act of Congress or federal law.

For example if existing "civil rights" legislation is fully implemented, there will be more federal funds going to interfere directly with customs and laws already existing at state and local levels.

Unlike the wholly unnecessary civil rights legislation, most citizens after the sky-high record of labor abuses disclosed in the McClellan Committee hearings feel the federal government must take some action to curtail the activities of union bosses, bring about democratic elections within the unions, and keep tab on organizational procedures and the constant threat of Communist infiltration.

A half-century ago, the trend began toward more government control over big business. This made for more bureaus to make sure the regulations were being followed and the bureaus continue to grow.

A good example of this is the requirement that businesses disclose records of their welfare-pension plans as part of an act of a previous Congress. The law included a measure of voluntarism — co-operation instead of demand—that businesses fill out the government forms sent to them. As a result, many of the nation's businesses are not complying on the grounds that there is no penalty for non-compliance.

This situation is almost certain to lead to a new law with new demands and extra personnel to cross check information and enforce the law. Thus grows the federal government.

With commerce, industry and individuals moving about the 50 states of the union, there is naturally need for more federal controls than was the case around 1900. But it appears uniformity in many fields — including labor practices and elementary and high school teaching requirements could be agreed upon by the states.

Federal controls and the resulting top-heavy bureaucracy to check and control them have already proven to be crude and expensive.

Sulphur Surplus Temporary

In addition to the many floating communities set up to probe offshore Gulf waters for oil, there are numerous rigs off the Louisiana shore probing for and mining sulphur. A strange note in the sulphur industry is the fact that a surplus exists in the market, yet companies are competing to develop greater production.

Unlike the farm market, sulphur industries see no pileup of surpluses over the next five years. So the race—on a track 200 feet below the floor of the Gulf—continues with keen competition.

Reason for this: sulphur is a basic tool of the chemist in the form of sulphuric acid. Also the yellow mineral is used in steel making, tire vulcanizing, newsprint manufacture, uranium mining, petroleum refining, fertilizer production, and molasses making.

In earlier days, it was mixed with axle grease to make a balm to soothe various itches. The brimstone of hell is believed by some to be sulphur because it is literally a stone that burns.

One Houston industrialist, according to the Wall Street Journal, pointed out the surplus in the mineral will become a shortage by 1964. His arithmetic shows the domestic demand by that time will have increased 1.4 million tons a year. In addition, the observer says some 600,000 tons a year will be lost through the depletion of present mines. This will leave a gap of two million tons which can only be filled by the development of new mines.

One New Orleans industrialist, Eugene Walet, Jr., says he expects the sulphur consumption to climb as high as 25 million tons annually over the next eight years. He based his reckoning on a mushrooming population which will require more food, with sulphur filling in as fertilizer to produce the bigger food crop.

It is ironic that a product used in fertilizer could see a good basis for prosperity ahead, while the farmers—producers of the food itself—see only continued price drops.

Probably the world's most dramatic development in the sulphur industry is the Freeport Sulphur rigging off Grand Isle. In this manmade island are 15,000 tons of steel, 650 million board feet of creosoted lumber, and 38,000 linear feet of 30-inch diameter piping. The installation stands 75 feet above the surface of the Gulf and is "hurricane proof."

Though Louisiana is a well-known sulphur producing area, other parts of the world have come into the field; namely, Canada and Mexico. Particularly in Canada, sulphur is being recovered from natural gas more cheaply than it can be mined in the Gulf fields. But the transportation problem—the Canadian gas wells are located too far from the user markets—will enable Gulf states producers to continue their lead in the business.

Two factors stand as reasons for optimism in the sulphur business in spite of the present low prices and sulphur stocks:

1. Unlike food and organic fiber — as cotton — sulphur can be stored without spoiling or rotting.
2. The users for the basic chemical are already legion and are certain to increase as scientific research and development is stepped up.

In 1884, the cornerstone for the pedestal of the Statue of Liberty was laid. This symbol of freedom was erected mainly through the efforts of a New York daily newspaper.

The first wood pulp paper was exhibited in the United States in 1854 by John Bearsley. Today, it requires approximately 75,000,000 trees to produce the newsprint (wood pulp paper) used for newspaper advertisements alone.

In 1884, the first private bath was introduced in an American hotel. In 1958, hotels and resorts invested over $19,000,000 in daily newspapers to inform the public of their luxurious accommodations.

The first illustrated daily newspaper was published in New York City in 1873. Zinc plate etchings were issued. Today, photographs of important events near and far appear in daily newspapers within hours after they occur.

Improvement Shown In Rate Of Cure In Cancer

Let us not be so sure to number the dead from cancer; there are always the living, those who have met the enemy, known its exactions and have overcome it. According to Dr. Sidney Farber, professor of pathology at the Harvard Medical School, the cure rate of cancer has changed in the last three years from one in four to one in three as a result of medical research programs.

This is a high rate of cure and proves what study and research and knowledge can do. My own experience with cancer was quite simple. We discovered it and got it out. Of course, there is no guarantee that another cancer may not be forming elsewhere and one must recognize that he is not eternal.

What are you looking for, guarantees? It is enough that one can live a little longer, enjoy the company of those whom he loves for another period of time. Life cannot be guaranteed as there can be no security, no assurances of anything. Those who seek guarantees, seek more than can be given. It is enough that one knows that there are men and women who every day work to defeat this malignant thing that only lives to kill.

And those men and women also cannot guarantee that the very costly work that they are doing—costly in money, in time, in the lives of researchers—will bring success. They know by experience that when much work is done by skilled and competent people on research projects, something may come out of it. For instance, Dr. Farber told a congressional committee:

"Within the past few weeks, at least five virus or viral agents derived from mice with leukemia and capable of causing leukemia in other mice have been shown to be productive of antibody formation."

There it is. The beginning of a concept, namely, that there may be a connection between some forms of cancer and some kind of virus. It will take years before anything can be proved. Then it takes time to understand what was proved and what chemicals might be used to cure the disease. Then it will be found that the dosages are not quite right and that there are dangerous side effects. And then they will know exactly how to use the chemicals and they will be called, "wonder drugs," as, indeed, everything that saves our lives is a wonderful instrument if properly understood and used.

Many persons, particularly those who watch beloved ones suffer, urge speed. Why, they ask, if so much money is spent on research, is so little discovered? Impatient we all are, but the rate of those who do not die rises and that ought to mean much. It is sad, indeed, to see a beloved one die when the cure is just around the corner but that corner must be turned.

Both of the great killers have attacked me during the past three years, heart and cancer. For decades before that I never had any troubles beyond a cold and once a bad appendix. Then suddenly, my heart kicked up. And then a cancer appeared. I am feeling fine, thank you. Nor were the experiences too unpleasant. The repair jobs are a bit rough, particularly the inconvenience of dieting and not smoking the wonderful Havana cigars to which I used to be addicted. However, I have had decades of great enjoyment and a rich life with the sin of gluttony the most usual of my errors.

Heart-Ailment Talk Is Unwise

Why advertise the fact that you are sick? What does it really get you — except heartache and exasperation? I keep advising people not to tell anyone about their illness, (the important exception being the family, I feel that close relatives should know, otherwise there might be unnecessary misunderstanding, and perhaps needless cruelty to the sick one).

Listen to Mr. W. B. of Connecticut, a man who has been through it. He is in his fifties and has had heart disease for the past few years.

"Doctor," he declared, "I've learned what I think is the most important thing a sick person should know. You've got to know how to fight it out by yourself. The sooner you realize that trying to get others' sympathy is just wasted motion, the happier you will be."

"Take my case, for example. Before I moved to this city last year I used to live in a town out west. When I got over my coronary thrombosis I japped about it to everyone. I did not realize what I was letting myself in for."

"It wasn't long before everybody was asking me 'And how do you feel today, Bill?' That happened in the office, on the street, when coming out of the movies — anywhere I might meet a friend."

"I appreciated it at first. But after a while I just couldn't take it any more. I knew that what was at first primarily genuine interest in my health, had turned into something as casual as talking about the weather."

"People would say: 'Your color isn't so good today' or 'What's wrong, Bill, you don't look good. Aren't you feeling well?'"

"And don't get me wrong, doctor. I'm not overly sensitive. It's just that a normal person can take just so much disinterested sympathy."

"I'll let you in on a little secret. I moved away from that place for the very reasons I have been telling you. You don't know how relieved I've been since I've been living here the past few months. You, my family and I are the only ones who know that I've ever been sick. There isn't another soul in town who knows. "It's wonderful to talk to dozens of people, to go work in the office and not have one person say to you: 'How's your heart acting, Bill?' You look a little peaked today."

I told Bill he was a wise man. I have known hundreds who talked too much about their illness — and were sorry, as Bill was. I tell patients to keep it to themselves. That goes for any illness whether it's a harmless itch or something more serious.

Tell your family — but keep it from your friends and acquaintances. They may be well-meaning and sympathetic at first; but it's only natural that the passage of time will diminish their real concern. Besides, they have problems of their own. Why burden them with yours?

HABITS OF EATING
One man likes to eat lunch alone. Another says: "Unless I can sit down with two or three of my friends, I'd rather skip it!" A third likes soup. A fourth says: "I hate soup."

I have been reading an interesting article in Connecticut Medicine by William Kaufman, M.D., of Bridgeport, who writes on "Some Emotional Uses of Foods."

He says that our eating behavior is conditioned by our parents, particularly the mother, by relatives, friends, by our culture and religious training. Early in life, each of us develops patterns of eating.

As we grow up, if we feel emotionally thwarted we seek gratification in the "reward" foods: chocolate, hot dogs, candy or nuts. Others, under severe emotional stress, may reach for milk products. Dr. Kaufman gives many interesting examples.

What I get out of it all is that you and I should forgive our neighbor's "food idiosyncrasies."

'Pork Chop Hill' Lauds Soldiers

EN ROUTE TO EUROPE — Gregory Peck in "Pork Chop Hill" will be seen by millions of movie-goers, and the only regret is that Americans in their millions might never know the magnificent story behind the book of the same title by "Slam" Marshall.

Marshall, a veteran newsman and a self-described "book soldier" (student of military affairs) went to Korea in 1953 to make a survey of combat morale for the Army. He was hearing about the States the same dismal stories which the rest of us heard, then and later, a time would come when books and magazine pieces, firmly based on documented case histories, of the meanings of the country which had asked them to give their lives to it, reluctant to come to grips with the enemy and all too prone to "collaborate" when made prisoner.

Marshall reached Korea and heard from line captains that more GI's were killed diving for cover than in fighting. The war at that time was frozen in deadlock, but Army leaders frankly dreaded a major catastrophe and disgrace if the Communists should mount a strong offensive.

Marshall's story of Pork Chop Hill is the kind which all writers, both newsmen and fictioneers, yearn to uncover. The author built it from 50,000 words of interview notes from fighting men on the battlefield before they had washed and rested from the fray. The authenticity is unimpeachable and the margin for error is almost negligible.

What Marshall found, if I may paraphrase from the introduction to his book, was that the military system was dreadful, but the soldier was wonderful. Here are the big elements of his story what he had heard behind the lines, and heroism which this author-expert compared favorably with the great American actions at Cold Harbor, Attu and the Argonne.

a family with wealth enough to send him to college. Of the 73, 52 spoke with warm admiration of their fathers, and held that parent's "masculine qualities" in high regard. More than half spoke voluntarily and enthusiastically of their folks back home, families which consisted of three or more children. Most of them recognized, according to their interviewer, that love was the vital force in their lives — that their heroism was made at home and born of the honest, normal, typical affection of persons who lived under the same roof.

Marshall notes that the Korean War was a "bonanza" for Red China — and this is beyond dispute. It gave this new Communist nation a prestige before the world and a unifying experience at home which were priceless to Red China. Out of forgiveness, we should not require that the Korean War be hung like an albatross around the necks of those responsible. But we owe it to truth and to the dead to say that the war, like his battle, was a "won-lost" affair. It was as Marshall says, "won by the troops but lost to sight by people who had sent them forth."

Daily Devotional

But he that receiveth seed into good ground is he that heareth the Word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit. — Matthew 13:23.

Christ's parable of the sower is one of the most enlightening portions of New Testament Scripture — especially since He took care to explain the significance of the various elements of this parable. We can learn a great deal from the Bible through careful reading, but we can acquire an even more helpful understanding of God's Word if we expose ourselves to sermons and Bible exposition. This is why church attendance is so important. If we hear and understand, we can be more fruitful and productive Christians.

Heavenly Father, may we be good soil into which Thy seed may fall and grow. In Christ's holy name we pray. Amen.

Opinions Differ On Long's Future

ernor recovers completely, which I hope he does, he is going to continue to be a big factor in Louisiana state politics."

Sen. Robert Ainsworth of New Orleans — "I understand Long's illness will be of relatively short duration. I hope he has a speedy recovery. It is too soon to evaluate the political effects. I don't think we can evaluate the situation until the doctors give us more to go on."

Sen. Jackson Davis of Shreveport — "I have no information on Gov. Long's health other than that which is public knowledge. From that, I believe he'll return to Baton Rouge before June is over. I certainly would not say he's politically dead, although he has lost face. It is too early to evaluate fully the effect this will have on his political future."

Sen. B. B. Rayburn of Bogalusa — "I think he can come back as strong as ever if his health is all right. I personally think all he needed was rest."

Sen. Hubert Sims of Mer Rouge — "I don't think he will come back because of doubts in the minds of the people. As far as him being a political factor, I don't think this is doing him any good in my area. The people will not have any confidence in him as a person any longer. What he has done has damaged himself and his followers. He cannot come back nearly as strong as before. Nobody can martial his forces like he can himself."

Sen. W. M. Rainach of Sumnerfield — "I think he'll be back as soon as he can get out. His political machine is riddled. I don't think he can regroup his forces. The biggest difficulty is that he has completely lost his grass roots support. Without that no political organization can survive."

At latest count, there were 266,738 groceries in the United States and their total sales were nearly $3 billion dollars.

Herter Hurls Hot Blast At Soviet Plan

many) and countries beyond, including Scandinavia."

He described East Berlin as a "center of subversion, kidnapping, spying and numerous other hostile activities" all designed to promote the "complete overthrow" of freedom in West Berlin and West Germany.

—He was armed with this record:—

—One hundred and three kidnappings of West Berliners in 10 years.

—Hiring of spies in West Berlin by agents of East Germany, Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria.

—All these countries have agents working in West Berlin.

—Steady agitation and infiltration of the West German Social Democrat Party, trade unions, student and sports organizations.

—Underground activities of the illegal Communist Party in West Germany, guided and financed from East Berlin.

Gromyko, speaking after Herter concluded, said he had an "even longer list" of charges against West Berlin. Then he changed the subject and went back to his original—and frequently rejected—German plan that would keep East and West Germany permanently divided.

Herter said he was reluctant to bring up the charges but that it was necessary to record the facts.

He broke down his figures and charged that the 13,000-member "ministry for state security" in East Berlin is the "basic" espionage and subversive agency.

Among other agencies, the 500-member "foreign sector - intelligence" bureau of this agency tries to "recruit espionage agents in the West," Herter said.

He said its "counter-intelligence" agency of 62,000 members uses an "infamous informer system," and specializes in drug-gings, kidnappings and otherwise coercing refugees back to East Berlin and certain arrest.

Herter appealed strongly to Gromyko to understand that Russia is responsible to the world in the Geneva negotiations for a settlement of the Berlin crisis.

Gromyko blandly went back to the original Western package plan—already rejected by the Kremlin—and asked clarification of three points. He said he needed more details on renunciation of the use of force, a peaceful settlement of disputes and defining areas where tensions could be lessened.

He appeared to be still stalling. The West already has spelled out its aims in exhaustive detail.

The West believed that any break in the Soviet stand would come next week, after Soviet Premier Khrushchev confers in Moscow with the hierarchy of the East German government and party, the East Germans are due in Moscow Monday, and have a meeting scheduled in the Kremlin Tuesday.

The Soviet Premier, due back in Moscow Saturday from a trip to Albania and Hungary, was to make a "major speech" in the Lenin sports palace after his return. Moscow observers predicted he would discuss the Geneva conference.

The decision of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to remain in office rather than step up to the figurehead presidency also played a part in the Geneva parley, now ending its fourth week without progress.

West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano flew home to Bonn for urgent consultations.

The West's position was made crystal clear by Herter. He said that while the West was willing to discuss a temporary settlement on Berlin, it wanted primarily permanent reunification of Germany.

Couple Found Dead In N.O. Apartment

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A New Orleans couple, described by friends as "perfect neighbors," were found dead in their second-story apartment here Friday.

Dead was contractor Joseph B. deVillontroy, Jr., 50, and his wife, Laure Wilcox deVillontroy, 45.

The husband was found with a bullet hole in the back of his head and his wife had been slashed across her throat, police said.

Investigating officers said they had been unable to find either the gun or knife and there was no evidence of a struggle.

Police said Mrs. deVillontroy's body was found lying on the floor in the living room. She had been struck on the head three or four times with a blackjack, part of which was found lying on the floor.

His body was discovered in the bedroom. A clip from a gun was found nearby.

There was no sign of forced entry, police reported.

Investigating officers said the blood found on the inner stairway of the house was dry, indicating the slayings must have taken place sometime during the night.

The couple's fox terrier "Zero" could not be found and police said he may have been carried away.

deVillontroy was half owner and executive vice-president of United Enterprises, Inc., of New Orleans.

Friends and foes of the legislation have disagreed sharply on its meaning and scope.

The Judiciary Committee said in its majority report that it would "restore harmony in the delicate field of federal-state relations."

But the minority report said it would produce "chaos" in legal circles and open the door for endless court cases.

An authoritative spokesman at the hospital said Long was in "good physical condition" and his length of stay could be only a matter of weeks.

Sen. Russell Long (D-La.), the governor's nephew, told newsmen in Baton Rouge Thursday Long "could be home within a month." He said he based his optimistic outlook after conferring with doctors in Galveston.

Street Light Installation Is Underway

Work is now underway on installation and wiring of new street lights on the north side of Monroe, with completion scheduled for mid-June, Monroe Utilities Commission General Manager French Smith said yesterday.

Four thousand aluminum lights are being installed between Louisville and Forsythe Avenues, and between Riverside Drive and the Missouri - Pacific tracks, Smith explained.

Approximately 29 street lights have been installed in a separate operation along Auburn, Glenmar and Roselawn avenues between North 18th Street and the Missouri Pacific tracks.

As part of the commission's construction of an underground network of electrical equipment, Freeman Electrical Service is currently installing underground ducts along South Grand and De-Siard streets, as part of a $56,279 contract.

INSTALLATION

They have nearly completed duct installation in a private alley of South Grand between De-Siard and Grammont.

Humble Construction Co., awarded a $2,685 contract for transformer vault construction, has recently completed a reinforced concrete underground transformer vault at the foot of Grammont Street, in the sidewalk adjacent to the Red Cross building.

Smith commented that this vault will house a 300 KVA network transformer which will be installed later this month by Utilities Commission employees.

"Some way, somehow," said Guy Starkweather, "I will make an application—with or without an attorney. If I can't get counsel, I'll do the best I can myself."

He said he and his wife have approached several attorneys but can't find one to take their son's case. Court-appointed attorneys represented Charles Starkweather in his District Court trial and his appeal to the federal Circuit Court. He had no attorney in his application to federal District Court for a writ.

NLSC String Trio Closes Music Season

By JOHN CALE
Staff Writer

The NLSC Trio presented its final program of the year last night in Recital Hall on the Northeast Campus to an appreciative audience.

The three musicians, Elise Stanhope, pianist; Eloy Fomina, violinist; and Elizabeth Martin, cellist performed with all the vigor, polish and musical discipline of professionals.

The program included the Beethoven Trio, Opus 1, No. 1; The Trio Opus 67 of Shostakovich; and the Trio in D Minor by Arensky. The Beethoven composition was his first work to hit the publishers' market. While it was obviously a more youthful endeavor than the master's later compositions, it made good listening and was an ideal opener. The energetic early works of the great composers are too often overlooked, and the finale of last night's initial number was one of the musical highlights of the evening.

More difficult for performers and listeners was the trio by the modern Russian composer, Shostakovich, in a wartime effort of 1944. Strangely enough, the Soviet-sanctioned composers are not as "revolutionary" as their western counterparts — including U. S. writers of serious music.

Innovations — especially the use of high harmonics in the "cello" part at the beginning with similar treatment of the violin part as well to tradition in form and mood.

Better musical communication with the audience was reestablished with the performance of the Arensky Trio which closed the program. Built along the heavy harmonies and melodies of the late 19th century, the piece offered each performer some challenging solo spots.

SOLOIST
It may be noted each of the performers is a soloist in his or her own right and the finale of the Arensky Trio allowed such abilities to show themselves to good advantage.

The performance of the NLSC Trio marks the close of the music and drama season for 1959 in this area.

IN DISTRICT COURT

3 Persons Receive Suspended Terms

Judge David I. Garret sentenced E. E. Worley, 28, and Jack Tuggle, 41, to five years in the Louisiana State Penitentiary, then suspended the sentence and placed the men on probation, on a charge of theft of three hogs in West Monroe.

The action came in Fourth District Court yesterday.

William Lee Curry also received a suspended two-year penitentiary sentence and was placed on probation, after he admitted theft of $61.39 worth of auto parts.

William Roy Fox, alias Sonny Fox, and Frank McQuiller denied theft of a $250 auto and trial was set for Nov. 4.

Clyde Mitchell, Negro charged with murder in the Memorial Day stabbing of Curtis Jones, Negro, appeared in court and an attorney was appointed to defend him.

On charges of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating alcoholic beverages, Thomas E. Edwards pleaded innocent and trial was set for June 6. Robert G. Shively pleaded guilty to second offense and was fined $300 or 60 days in the parish jail; John Thomas Williamson was called on bond; Vivian C. Bradley was tried, found guilty and remanded for sentencing until June 12, and Efram Calloway was passed over.

Shively also was fined $25 or 10 days for driving without a license and Williamson's bond was called on speeding charges when he failed to appear in court.

Harold D. Massey was tried, found guilty of reckless driving, and fined $50 or 30 days. Jack C. Hilburn was fined $25 or 10 days on the same charge.

Charges of hit and run driving against James H. Johnston were continued until Sept. 13.

Driving with improper lights resulted in fines of $25 or 10 days for Ed Meeks and Willie Charles Burton.

Huey K. Gibson was tried and found innocent on charges of driving with switched license plates.

James L. Coffie was fined $25 or 10 days on charges of disturbing the peace.

Cases were dropped against the following persons:

Paddy Smith, charged with simple battery; Talmadge N. Wells, charged with theft of $15; Joe Buck Ross, charged with permitting an unlicensed minor to operate a motor vehicle; Albert Henninger, charged with forgery; and Howard Knippe, charged with theft.

In other action, Judge Garrett heard not guilty pleas entered by William H. Lott, 22, West Monroe, in each of two counts of extortion. His trial was set for November 5 during the criminal session of the fall term. Lott was taken into custody this past week after allegedly forcing a local pharmacist, Perry Girod, to pay him money to keep from "repeating embarrassing and derogatory things" about his reputation.

TRIALS

The trials of Leroy Lengyon and Fred Thomas, both charged with theft of materials valued at $49.66 were set for the November session of court.

Eagbert B. Gallagher, who pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle with out a driver's license, was fined $50 and costs of court or 30 days, and sentenced to a compulsory 30 days in the parish jail.

Three persons pleaded not guilty to charges of operating motor vehicles while under the influence of intoxicating liquors. Jesse O. Anding, who was also charged with being a second offender, will be tried on June 26. Joe Earl Gamal and Robert J. Lewis will be tried on Sept. 13.

Also set for September 18 was the trial of James Curtis Douglas, charged with reckless driving.

One Paratrooper Dies, 27 Injured In War Games

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (UPI) — A paratrooper of the 82nd Airborne Division plunged to his death when his parachute failed to open Friday during a mass air drop ending Army-Air Force war games.

The Army said at least 27 other paratroopers were injured in the drop of 4,700 men at this huge military reservation. The most serious injuries were broken arms and legs.

The name of the dead soldier was withheld until relatives were notified.

Officers said there was "complete malfunction" of the victim's parachute. They said neither his main nor reserve chutes would open.

The victim was in the second group of men to jump during the exercise. Some 2,100 men were dropped early Friday morning and another 2,500 men began leaping shortly before noon.

The mass air drop, spilling waves of paratroopers into drop zones on the Ft. Bragg reservation, was the climax of exercise Dark Cloud-Pine Cone II, a test of the military's ability to cope with limited "brushfire" wars. The ground phase of the exercise was cancelled early Friday and infantry and artillery troops moved in from the field. Some 20,000 soldiers, airmen and reservists participated.

King Of Rackets Wins Fight To Get Out Of Jail

NEW YORK (AP)—Vito Genovese, reputed "king of the rackets," won his fight to get out of jail Friday to appeal his narcotics conspiracy conviction.

The U.S. Court of Appeals granted Genovese freedom in $150,000 bail pending the appeal.

Genovese posted the bond in U.S. District Court and walked out smilingly.

He had been confined in the Federal House of Detention without bail since April 17.

Genovese was convicted with 14 others last April 3 on the narcotics conspiracy charges.

Hormone Aids Victims Of Heart Cases

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UPI) — The essential body chemical of femininity seems to prolong the lives of men who have had heart attacks, the annual meeting of the American Therapeutic Society was told Friday.

Dr. Oliver Kuzma, of the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, reported that of 339 men who got tiny daily doses of the female chemical, 4.4 per cent of them died within three years after their heart attacks.

Of 220 men who had had heart attacks but were not given the chemical, 12.3 per cent died within the three year period.

The chemical is the hormone, estrogen, which is made primarily by the female sex glands but is also produced in very tiny amounts by the adrenal glands of both sexes.

Since the arteries of women are better preserved than men and women are much less subject to heart attacks, medical science has long suspected that estrogen was responsible for the greater longevity of the female.

Dr. Kuzma was reporting on one phase of large-scale studies centering around patients of the Los Angeles County Hospital. Dr. Jessie Marmorston reported to the same meeting on a second phase, that of women who suffered heart attacks after the menopause which drastically lowers the amounts of estrogen in the female body.

She reported that among 102 heart-attack women, mortality of those given daily doses of estrogen was 55 per cent of those who weren't given estrogen. The treated and non-treated women were precisely "matched" in pairs by age and by the complications which went with their heart disease.

Rebels Make New Threats In Nicaragua

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP) — Rebel leaders claimed Friday their threats to President Luis Somoza's regime are just beginning, despite Somoza's insistence that any threat to his regime is about over.

Enrique Lacayo Farfan, who heads an anti-Somoza coalition of liberals and conservatives from San Jose, capital of neighboring Costa Rica, said his movement will triumph in two or three months.

In a telephone interview with a Havana radio station, Lacayo claimed his men are organized on two fronts although no major

Judge Notifies Auto Shops On Road Testing

Monroe City Judge W. M. Harper ordered yesterday that auto repair shops be notified that road testing cars within the city limits is prohibited unless they are tested within the speed limits.

Harper issued the order during city court after one man had appeared on a speeding charge and then told the judge he was road testing a vehicle when stopped by a patrolman.

The judge heard the man's plea and then fined him for reckless driving.

Harper told Assistant Police Chief George A. Wood to see that all auto repair shops were notified that such testing is illegal unless the cars are driven within the speed limits.

At Least Four Drown In River

COLUMBIA, Miss. (AP) — At least four persons drowned Friday while crossing the flooded Pearl River in a small skiff about 10 miles northwest of here.

The four were in the boat with several others, and police reported other occupants of the boat may still be in the water.

Officers identified three of the victims as Mrs. Hezzy Peaks, Betty Sue Stevens, and John Calhoun, 10. The body of a small boy about six years old was also recovered.

Alford Fires Charges In House Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Dale Alford (D-Ark.) charged Friday that a House investigation of his election was part of a "continuing campaign" to bring his service in Congress "under a microscope of innuendoes."

The Little Rock, Ark., congressman, an avowed segregationist, said the effort was being led by the veteran lawmaker he defeated — former Rep. Brooks Hays, a moderate on the school integration issue.

The House elections subcommittee also heard charges by Little Rock newspaper publisher John Wells.

He said there were more votes than voters in the controversial election and Alford ought to be unseated.

In reply to Wells earlier charges, Alford said: "I would not for a moment desire to serve in this distinguished body unless I had been properly and honestly elected by the majority of the people of the Fifth District of Arkansas."

Alford said the "real truth of the matter" was that protests over the election were being led by Hays even though the defeated congressman had filed no formal contest with the House. Wells signed the complaint that led to the investigation.

Subcommittee Chairman Robert T. Ashmore (D-S.C.) said the House unit planned to go to Little Rock June 22 to examine ballots and perhaps hear some other witnesses.

Cost Of College Education Goes Up 33 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The cost of a college education has jumped about 33 per cent over the past four years and will rise by about the same amount over the next four, a government report showed Friday.

Tuition and student fees rose 33.5 per cent in public colleges and universities during the four-year period. The increase was 8.8 per cent during the past year fighting has started yet. They are stationed at one point about 90 miles from Managua and at another about 110 miles from the capital, he said, and a third front is opening up along the coast in Leon state.

In Washington the Organization of American States decided to ask Caribbean governments for information on the invasion, which began May 31 with the landing of a plane load of rebels from Costa Rica.

The special OAS investigating committee did not announce any specific plans to visit Nicaragua.

High School Senior Slain During Fight

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A Central High school senior who missed graduation Thursday night by one unit was shot fatally during a fight with a Brookhaven man over the relative merits of their schools.

Detective Lt. J. P. Shipp identified the student as Kellon Sullivan, 19-year-old co-captain of the 1958 Central High football team, and said he died during surgery shortly after the shooting Thursday night.

Shipp said R. T. Foster, 33-year-old former Brookhaven resident and now a Jackson insurance salesman, surrendered and was charged with murder.

Foster told this story: He and Sullivan argued in a beer hall, saying the other's school had bought football players. As the argument became more heated, Foster, Sullivan and some other students drove away to a nearby street.

Foster said the group "ganged up on me and were just about beating me to death" when he broke away, grabbed his pistol from his car and fired two shots. He said he shot to scare the youths. Both shots hit Sullivan.

Sullivan was voted most athletic at Central this year. He lettered in football, basketball and track and was a lieutenant in the high school ROTC unit.

Military-type funeral services, with fellow students participating, will be held Saturday.

Survivors include his mother, and step-father; two brothers, Carl and Carroll Sullivan; a sister, Judy Sullivan; and three half-brothers, Carl, Ralph and Graham Mahon, all of Jackson.

alone. Similar charges in privately supported institutions went up 34 per cent during the four years and 10.1 per cent in 1958.

Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, predicted an increase of probably another 33.4 per cent over the next four years.

The zooming price of higher education was stressed in a new manual, called Planning and Management Data which the U.S. Office of Education prepared for the nation's 1,957 colleges. The study was based on information from 229 institutions.

The report said the annual tuition and fee charges for a full-time student was $164 in a public college and $384 in a privately-supported college.

Students attending a college out of the state in which they legally reside must pay an average $206 more for tuition and fees than those charged to in-state students.

On the average, the charges for dormitory rooms were $160 for men and $165 for women in public institutions and $191 for men and $207 for women in private schools.

ON GLOBE-CIRCLING TOUR

Sukarno Named 'Man Of Week'

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

Man-of-the-week: President Sukarno of Indonesia.

The place: Hollywood.

The quote: (From a spokesman for Sukarno) "If it were a critical situation the president would have stayed home."

Observers in Jakarta, Indonesia's capital, were saying this week that Sukarno had suffered his greatest political defeat. The army had banned all political activity, and Sukarno's bid for near-dictatorial powers had come a cropper in the face of stonewall Moslem opposition.

Jakarta reports said the army moved to prevent the nation plunging into chaos.

So, if the situation were not critical, it could do as one until a better and more critical situation came along.

But of all this Sukarno himself gave no sign.

VISITS HOLLYWOOD

In the midst of a globe-circling tour, Sukarno was in Hollywood exploring the mysteries of movie-making and having his picture taken with no less a film luminary than Miss Joan Crawford.

He showed no indications of hurrying home.

At the core of the difficulty was Sukarno's demand for creation of a five-year cabinet, with himself at the head, which would rule Indonesia "without interference of opposition as conceived by the system of liberal democracy."

It would be the first step in his concept of "guided democracy" for Indonesia, a socialistic concept eliminating capitalism.

It received strong support from Indonesian Communistists who would participate in the new government on a basis of equality and who could hope from this stepping stone eventually to take over the government.

Moslem opposition arose not so much from a dislike of the "guided democracy" plan as from Sukarno's refusal to assure them in advance of a prominent place in the new government.

ADMIRE RUSSIA

Sukarno has declared Western-style democracy unsuitable for Indonesia and his present actions indicate he considers his defeat to be temporary only.

During a visit to New York in 1956, Sukarno declared that "neither rubles nor dollars can buy a scrap of our freedom."

But as a successful revolutionary in his own right, Sukarno has expressed open admiration for the accomplishments of Soviet Russia and has paid tribute to Soviet leaders for helping to shape his ideas for a "working cabinet" which would "guide the people and channel their ideas to achieve their needs and desires."

Sukarno, 58 years old on June 7, spent 12 of those years either in jail or exile.

Mississippi Methodists May Merge

COLUMBUS, Miss. (AP) — The 90th annual North Mississippi Methodist Conference voted Friday to merge with the Mississippi Methodist Conference and asked the bishop of both to appoint a committee to study the proposal.

Bishop Marvin Franklin of Jackson would appoint the committee only if the Mississippi Conference adopts a similar resolution during its convention at Gulfport next week.

If the proposal moves without a hitch, the merger could be effected in 1964.

The two Mississippi conferences support jointly Millsaps College, the Mississippi Children's Home, the Mississippi Methodist Advocate, the Methodist headquarters, all in Jackson, and Home Hospital in New Orleans.

In other action, Bishop Franklin read pastoral appointments for next year. The changes affect 74 charges in three districts in the North Mississippi conference.

One major change was redesignating the Columbus district as the Starkville district. The change was administrative in that the superintendent already resides in Starkville.

The Rev. James Elliott, conference treasurer, reported that $502,558 was collected during the year for all purposes save support for the ministry.

Rep. Joe Wroten of Washington County was named the third lay delegate to the southeastern jurisdictional conference next year.

The Rev. C. B. Howell of Aberdeen was granted a year's sabbatical leave.

New district superintendents: The Rev. H. L. Beasley of Macon, replacing the Rev. A. Y. Brown in the Greenwood district. The Rev. Mr. Brown was assigned to West Point.

The Rev. K. I. Tucker of Armory, replacing the Rev. J. Noel Hinson in the Sardis district. The Rev. Mr. Hinson was assigned to Aberdeen.

The Rev. Thad Ferrell of First Church Greenville replaces Dr. N. J. Golding in the Starkville district. The Rev. Dr. Golding replaces the Rev. Mr. Ferrell at Greenville.

Other major changes: The Rev. W. R. Lott, Amory; the Rev. W. P. Bailey, Belzoni; the Rev. R. E. Wasson, Durant; the Rev. E. L. Jernigan, Lexington; the Rev. J. A. George, Marks; the Rev. G. W. Curtis, Winona Moore Memorial; the Rev. J. A. Grisham, Corinth First Church; the Rev. J. T. McCafferty, Iuka First Church; the Rev. S. M. Butts, Water Valley First Church; the Rev. J. P. Humphries, Cleveland; the Rev. M. J. Peden, Macon; and the Rev. R. Glenn Miller, Starkville.

Naval Academy Board Toughens Entrance Exams

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Naval Academy board of governors lauded officials of the Annapolis, Md., institution Friday for their plans to toughen entrance requirements for would-be midshipmen.

In a report to President Eisenhower, the board also recommended a 20 per cent increase in faculty salaries, additional faculty research, lowering of the maximum age for admission and other improvements in the academy's training program.

It commended Rear Adm. Charles L. Melson, academy superintendent, and his staff for "excellent work" in turning out well-trained Navy officers.

"In this time of important advances in science and technology, it is gratifying that the Naval Academy is alert to the need of reassessing its program to the end that midshipmen obtain the best possible education and training," the report said.

Rebels Land Five Players On 1-AAA All-Star Squad

By JIM DAWSON
Shreveport Times

(Written for La. Sports Writers Association)
West Monroe's hard-hitting Rebels, who cuffed Fair Park in a playoff game for the 1-AAA district title, landed five berths on the 15-man all-conference team selected for the Louisiana Sports Writers Association by the loop's six coaches.

Three players from each Shreveport school, Fair Park and Byrd, two from Bossier and one each from Bastrop and Ouachita round out the all-star squad.

Voting on the team were coaches Dan McClure of West Monroe, Milford Andrews of Fair Park, J. D. Cox of Byrd, Dave Steger of Bossier, Bob Brasher of Bastrop and Pat Patterson of Ouachita.

Two catchers, three pitchers, six infielders and four outfielders were named.

Only one player, West Monroe outfielder Roscoe Holcomb, was a unanimous selection. Other Rebels honored were catcher Kelton Bacon, pitcher Ronnie Haile, utility infielder Jerry Stovall and utility outfielder Roy Lee Scroggins.

Fair Park's contributions to the team were first baseman James Sewell, second baseman George Garrett and third sacker Paul Solice. Byrd placed pitcher Jerry Godwin, outfielder Eugene Farr and Bill Hancock, who tied with Solice for the third base position.

Pitcher Cecil Upshaw and outfielder Clifford Rowe were Bosier players making the team. Bastrop's Walter Moore landed a catcher's berth and Ouachita's sensational sophomore, James Cromwell, shaded two highly-regarded Shreveport players for the shortstop position.

Bacon and Moore drew four votes each in grabbing the backs topping laurels. Moore, a senior, hit .313 and did a fine job handling the Ram pitchers. Bacon clouted a pair of homers, hit .294 and made only two errors during the district campaign. Ouachita's Tommy Crowe and Byrd's Don Durr also received mention.

Upshaw and Haile, a pair of hard-throwing righthanders, received five votes each and Byrd southpaw Godwin drew four. Upshaw posed a 1.78 earned run average and pitched consecutive no-hitters against Bastrop and Byrd.

Haile, a senior, won six games, lost three and chalked up a 2.01 ERA and was the big gun in West Monroe's surge into the state playoffs. Godwin had a 2.11 ERA.

Other moundsmen nominated were Fair Park junior Sammy LaDatta and Bastrop freshman Floyd Murr.

Cromwell's selection came as a mild surprise but the 15-year-old Ouachita sophomore deserved the honor. Cromwell hit .333 for the season and committed only two errors while compiling a glittering .972 fielding average.

Juniors Pete Seale of Byrd and Paul LeBenne of Fair Park got two votes each. Seale led the district in hitting with a solid .417 mark.

Jerry Stovall, possibly the finest all-around athlete in West Monroe history, landed the utility infield position. The fleet senior hit .26, bashed a pair of homers and was a terror afield and on the bases.

Holcomb, a junior, hit .333 and three homers for the Rebels. Scroggins picked up the utility picket post with a .280 swat mark. Farr hit .339 for Byrd and Rowe .231 for Bossier.

Rain Washes Out 3 La-Ark League Tilts

Rain and wet grounds continued to plague the La-Ark League schedule, washing out all three games last night.

Games postponed were West Monroe, Dubach at Bastrop and Oak Grove at Crossett, Ark. Makeup dates for the contests were incomplete last night.

Sunday's schedule sends West Monroe to Crossett, Dubach to Oak Grove and Bastrop to Monroe. Monroe and West Monroe are tied for league leadership with three wins without a loss.

Indiana Cager Inks LSU Pact

BATON ROUGE, La., (Special) — Louisiana State University has now signed four high school basketball players to grant-in-aid scholarships, LSU basketball coach Jay McCreary announced today.

The latest prep basketballer to sign with the Tigers is Ray Scherdel, a 6-4 1/2 forward from Bedford, Ind.

Yesterday's scheduled American Legion game here between Bastrop and Monroe was postponed because of rain along with the rest of the fifth district Legion schedule.

Monroe manager Red Sims said his team is scheduled to play at Oak Grove today if the weather permits in a game originally set for last Monday.

They Share A Record

Stan Musial poses beside a statue of former Pittsburgh great Honus Wagner. Musial Thursday tied Wagner's National League record by hitting his 651st double. Musial's blow went to the left field wall at Forbes Field, within 100 feet of where the statue stands in an adjoining park. Stan lost a chance to set a new record yesterday when the Cardinals were rained out. (AP Wirephoto)

Three Dominate Class C All-State

By JERRY BYRD
Shreveport Journal
Written for the Louisiana Sports Writers Assn.

State champion Milton, runner-up St. Charles of Destrehan and Northwest Louisiana champion St. Mary's of Natchitoches dominate the Louisiana Sports Writers Assn. Class C All-State baseball team, each placing three stars on the 14-player squad.

Milton, an 8-0 winner over Doyle in the state semifinals and 11-1 winner over St. Charles in the finals, is represented by pitcher Sid Girard, second baseman Jim Hebert and outfielder Joe Frederick.

St. Charles, the Riverside League champion, placed its sterling battery of pitcher Clarence Simonsaux and catcher Mal DeJean on the team along with utility player Nick Lopez. All three won berths on the All-Riverside team.

Instead of picking a utility infielder and utility outfielder on the team, the sports writers and broadcasters who participated in the All-State poll restricted their choice to one player because of a shortage of outstanding outfielders. Lopez alternated between first base and the outfield for St. Charles.

Representing Coach Joe Samptie's St. Mary's Tigers in the star-spangled lineup are another battery combination, pitcher Ronald Roy and catcher Walter Ledet, and smooth-fielding shortstop Billy Maggio.

Others named to the team are pitcher Harold Detricieux of semifinalist Edgard, third baseman

Milt Sevario of semifinalist Doyle, first baseman Rodney Calhoun of Monterey and outfielders Eddie Jones of Hefflin and Robert Smith of Cheneyville.

Girard, Hebert and Frederick were the wheelhorses in Milton's effortless march to the state championship. That combination provided the backbone for the South Louisiana team's stingy pitching, heavy hitting and near-perfect fielding.

DeJean was the St. Charles team leader, hitting .410 for the season, while Simonsaux was much better than his 3-2 record indicates. He saved other games for the Comets and on several occasions left the mound with a big lead before going the five innings required to earn a victory.

Opposing base-runners learned to respect the rifle-armed throws of utility player Lopez. Although best known for his defensive talents, he was also outstanding at the plate with a .321 batting average.

Pale Hose Rally Tops Boston, 5-2

By JERRY LISK

CHICAGO (AP)—Pinch hitter Harry Simpson's three-run double broke a 2-2 tie in the eighth and enabled the Chicago White Sox to widen their first-place lead with a 5-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox Friday night.

Simpson smashed his bases-loaded clout off the fourth Boston hurler, Leo Kiely, and settled what had been a tightly pitched game witnessed by 32,321 in Comiskey Park.

Frank Malzone hit his No. 7 homer in the second for a 1-0 Boston lead.

The defeat was charged to Murray Wall, who had started the eighth and proceeded to yield a single to Earl Torgeson, then pegged wildly to second on an attempted sacrifice and filled the bases with an intentional walk to Jim Landis.

It took a sparkling relief chore in the eighth by Staley to save Wynn from his fifth setback against seven victories. Frank Baumann started for Boston and lasted until the fifth when Bill Monbouquette pulled Boston out of a bases-loaded and no-out situation.

Ted Williams singled to open the Boston eighth and walks to Gernert and Jensen chased Wynn. The next two batters banded into force-outs at the plate. But pinch hitter Vic Wertz grounder was bobbled by first sacker Torgeson and Boston scored an unearned run. Pinch hitter Marty Keough popped out, ending the inning with the bases still loaded.

The White Sox tied it at 1-1 in the fourth after Johnny Romano singled and Al Smith tripled.

Bengals Edge Solons, 7-6, In Wild Contest

DETROIT (AP) — Al Kaline's single drove in the winning run Friday night in the ninth inning as the Detroit Tigers edged Washington 7-6 in a wild contest witnessed by 27,537.

Kaline's hit scored Eddie Yost, who led off the inning with a single against his old teammates and went to second on a sacrifice. Pitcher Camillo Pascual gave Charlie Maxwell an intentional walk to pitch to Kaline.

The Tigers had to overcome a pair of tremendous home runs by Bob Allison for the victory. Allison drove in four of the Washington runs with a pair of upper deck blasts, and added three ringing singles for a perfect night at the plate.

There were 11 walks, one hit batsman, two errors and two passed balls in the game and four of the Detroit runs were unearned.

Allison's first home run gave the Senators a 2-0 margin in the first against starter Jerry Davie. Detroit put across four runs, three of them unearned, in the second, but Washington came back to tie it in the third.

The Senators scored two unearned runs on an error, a single, three walks and a passed ball.

Gail Harris homered for Detroit and Allison hit another two-run blast for Washington before Detroit tied it for the last time with an unearned run in the fourth. That's the way it stood until Kaline's game winning hit.

Jaycee Tennis Meet Cancelled

The annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Junior Tennis Tournament scheduled for this weekend has been cancelled, tourney chairman Andy Fisher announced yesterday.

Fisher said only three entries had been received for the tournament and very little interest shown in a proposed tennis clinic slated to precede the meet.

"We hope we will be able to present an open tournament later this summer if the Jaycee board approves," Fisher said.

The open tournament would be open to any tennis player in the Twin Cities, adult or junior.

Orioles Slam Athletics, Tie For 2nd Place

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Young Milt Pappas pitched a five-hitter Friday night and beat the Kansas City Athletics 6-1 as the Baltimore Orioles moved into a virtual tie for second place in the American League.

The 20-year-old right-hander had a shutout until two were out in the ninth when Bill Tuttle tripled and scored Joe DeMaestri who had been knocked by one of Pappas' pitches.

Pappas had no trouble except for occasional spots of wildness as he won his fifth game against a pair of losses. He walked six and struck out the same number. Gus Triandos hit his 12th homer of the year and scored what proved to be the winning run in the third inning. Gene Woodling hit a more productive homer in the ninth for Baltimore. His shot found Willie Tasby and Bob Boyd on base, both hit by errant pitches of Tom Sturdivant, second A's pitcher.

Technicality May Block Red China From Olympics

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The United States hasn't the authority to block Red China's participation in the Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif., a U. S. Olympic spokesman said Friday.

But a technicality may provide relief from the stormy controversy which has raged since Communist China was recognized last week by the International Olympic Committee.

"The Red Chinese have been recognized but have not yet been admitted to the IOC," the spokesman, who declined use of his name, said. "They must apply for membership and the time element is against them insofar as the Winter Games are concerned."

The IOC does not meet again until just prior to the Squaw Valley Games, beginning Feb. 18. Thus the group cannot act on a Red China application except through an extraordinary session. Olympic rules state that entry athletes from Nationalist China and not Red China be invited to the Winter Games.

Robert L. King, executive director of the Games at Squaw Valley, said the Red Chinese "cannot and will not participate in the Winter Olympic Games." He added that the organizing committee had invited Nationalist China prior to the IOC action and that Nationalist China had accepted.

"We as the host nation have nothing at all to say about who competes and who does not compete," The U. S. Olympic official said from national headquarters in New York. "We are compelled to accept any entries which are approved by the IOC and the various sports federations."

This is one of the temporary stumbling blocks facing the Red Chinese, who are reported conditioning a strong team for the Winter Games.

The Red Chinese became members of the IOC in 1954. In 1958 they walked out in a huff over IOC recognition of Nationalist China. They have not yet been readmitted. This requires time and red tape. They also must win approval of the various amateur sports federations which dictate the rules and qualifications.

The Communist Chinese entered athletes in the 1956 Games at Melbourne, Australia. They then refused to compete because of the recognition of the Nationalist Chinese.

The IOC action apparently has been misconstrued in many quarters.

The Red Chinese were not readmitted to the IOC. They were merely recognized. They still must apply for restoration of membership. The Nationalist Chinese were not expelled. They were told they would have to compete under a new banner — Formosa or Taiwan.

Avery Brundage, American president of the IOC, issued a statement from Lausanne, Switzerland, in which he hit back at criticism of the IOC action.

"The IOC," he said, "recognizes only sports organizations and not governments, and has no intention of deviating from its policy of non-discrimination — either religious, racial or political."

Hillsdale, Royal Orbit Favorites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Royal Orbit and Hillsdale, two of the hottest class horses in the country, were favored Saturday to pick up more gold and glory in leading races at Belmont and Hollywood.

An easy winner in the Preakness after finishing fourth in the Kentucky Derby, Royal Orbit drew only three rivals for the $25,000-added Peter Pan at Belmont Park. This mile and an eighth feature is the final prep for the mile and a half Belmont Stakes the following Saturday.

Royal Orbit, owned by Mrs. Halina Braunstein, will carry top weight of 127 pounds including jockey Willie Harnatz. He will give away plenty of weight to the other three, all Belmont eligibles. They are Bagdad (118, Bob Ussery), Black Hills (113, Eddie Arcaro) and The Irishman (109, Johnny Ruane).

The Peter Pan will be telecast by CBS from 3 to 3:30 p.m., EST. At Hollywood Park, Hillsdale will concede from 6 to 20 pounds to seven rivals in the $50,000 added Argonaut Handicap.

C. W. Smith's 4-year-old ace, the leading handicap racer in the nation, will be seeking his seventh stakes victory of the year. Hillsdale already is the leading money winner for 1959 with $270,250.

Hillsdale's opposition in the mile run includes Terrang (122), winner of the Argonaut last year in a flasy 1:33 4-5; Seaneed (116); Amerigo (114); How Now (115); Whodunit (108); The Searcher (109) and Fleet Nasrullah (113). Tommy Barrow will ride Hillsdale.

Other features of the national program include the $20,000 added Brandywine Turf Handicap at Delaware Park, the $25,000 added Sheridan Stakes for 3-year-olds at Washington Park, and the $15,000 added Myles Standish Stakes for 2-year-olds and geldings at Suffolk Downs.

Coup de Canon (122), Tenacious (121), Mississ (118) and Pantene (118) were rated the class of the field of 14 named for the Brandywine, a mile and a sixteenth gallop on turf.

The 6-furlong Sheridan drew 15 of the Midwest's leading 3-year-old sprinters. This cavalry charge figures to be paced by William G. Gilmore's Fightin Indian, who equaled the track record of 1:09 on the first day of the meeting.

Johansson Cuts Down On Heavy Work In Training

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP) — Ingemar Johansson, Swedish heavyweight challenger, boxed five rounds Friday as trainer Whitey Bimstein finally prevailed upon him to cut down on the heavy work.

He worked two rounds each with Clarence Floyd and Archie Towne and one round with his brother, Rolf. He worked indoors because of rain.

In addition to the boxing, the unbeaten European heavyweight champion went four rounds on the heavy bag, two rounds on the light bag, two on the suspended bag and two rounds skipping rope.

Johansson will box Saturday but will take Sunday off to make an appearance on a television show. He will work Monday, his usual day off, in preparation for his world heavyweight title bout June 25 with Floyd Patterson.

Phils Trade Willie Jones To Cleveland

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies Friday traded third baseman Willie Jones to the Cleveland Indians for outfielder Jim Bolger and cash.

Jones, 33, has been the Phillies' regular third baseman since 1949, and was one of the stars of the 1950 Whiz Kids who won the National League pennant. He is hitting .269 this season with seven home runs and 24 runs batted in.

Bolger, 27, first came to the major leagues in 1950 with Cincinnati. He played last year with the Chicago Cubs and hit .225 in 84 games. He was dealt to Cleveland during the winter.

The deal is the second made between the two clubs in recent weeks. Earlier, infielder Grady Hamner went to Cleveland for pitcher Humberto Robinson.

Yank Imports Overpaid Says Ed Sharkey

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — Edward Sharkey, by his own admission a former "grossly overpaid" lineman for the British Columbia Lions, says Canadian football teams are paying "absolutely crazy" wages to American imports.

In an interview Thursday, he said he was paid more than $10,000 to play for the Western Interprovincial Football Union Lions, more than he ever received or dreamed of receiving in the National Football League.

"It was more than New York Giants were paying Andy Robustelli, more than San Francisco 49ers were paying Leo Nomellini, probably the highest paid lineman in the league."

He said the NFL, far richer than Canadian leagues, pays an average salary of about $7,500 with one or two top stars getting $12,000 and a very few getting more.

"Here an untried college boy can command up to $18,000 and a discarded pro from the NFL can start dicker at around $10,000."

Sharkey, now a brewery salesman, agreed that Canadian football's restrictive import rule is forcing wages up. A coach could pick up 23 cuts from NFL camps and have a team that could whip anything in the country on a payroll of $200,000 a season. He said the Lions' payroll this year will be more than $300,000.

Herb Capozzi, Lions general manager, said he disagrees with Sharkey's figures. He said that while he believes unlimited imports would be good for his club, it would tend to increase salaries because all clubs would be after the best players.

Sharkey played three years with the San Francisco 49ers before his two-year stint with the Lions.

NEW EAST COACH

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Milt Bruhn of Wisconsin was added to the East's coaching staff today for the Shrine East-West football game at Kezar Stadium, Jan. 2. Bruhn and Johnny Michelosen of Pittsburgh will assist head coach Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson boxed another four rounds Friday in preparation for his title defense against Ingemar Johansson, June 25.

It was just a routine drill for the champ. He went one round each with Johnny James and Lou Jones and the final two with Johnny Byrd.

Boxing Head Warns Mob To Keep Out

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Eastern mobsters were warned Friday to stay out of boxing in California in the wake of the attack on matchmaker Jackie Leonard in Los Angeles and a mysterious, threatening telephone call to promoter Don Chagin of Oakland.

"We are in this with both hands and feet now and we'll fight to the bitter end to clean this damned thing up once and for all," Doug Hayden of the state Athletic Commission told United Press International. "If these Eastern mobsters come out here they know what they can expect."

Hayden, who is chief special agent for the Pacific Telephone Co. in northern California, said the call to Chagin was from out of town—probably from a phone booth.

"We don't know who it was," said Hayden. "It could have been anybody."

"But when men like Blinky Palermo and Jack Dragna start putting the pressure on you, then there is something behind it."

Hayden said the attack on Leonard, according to his investigators, was non-professional.

"Those jokers who beat up Leonard didn't appear to be too professional," said Hayden. "They hit him over the head with a one-gallon jug that was in his garage. I'm sure they just wanted to frighten him."

The commission recently held a hearing in Los Angeles in which Leonard charged that he had been threatened by gangsters; and that they wanted control of welterweight champion Don Jordan. He received the beating after the hearing.

Bob Reifsnnyder Declared Fit For Pro Grid Play

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams announced that 240-pound Bob Reifsnnyder, newly graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy, has been pronounced physically fit to play professional football this year.

The 21-year-old tackle underwent an operation for a tendon condition last February. Ram team doctors examined him carefully and advised the club Reifsnnyder could play.

The Rams drafted him on the fourth round of the National Football League draft.

Nine-Year-Old Pulls Off Triple Play Unassisted

PADUCAH, Tex. (AP) — Infielder James Oney, 9, is still a little small to be a bonus baby.

But he does things in a big way. In a local kids' league game this week, he caught a line drive, stepped on second base and tagged a runner to complete an unassisted triple play.

His team, the Indians, lost 11-10 to the Red Sox.

Patterson Holds Short Workout

CHATHAM, N.J. (AP) — Heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson boxed another four rounds Friday in preparation for his title defense against Ingemar Johansson, June 25.

It was just a routine drill for the champ. He went one round each with Johnny James and Lou Jones and the final two with Johnny Byrd.

One Of Life's Embarrassing Moments

With the eyes of a large gallery upon him, George Bayer blasts out of a sand trap—into another one. The action took place at Baltimore where the Gleneagles, Ill., golfer is playing in the Eastern Open. The ball made an arc over the green and landed in another sand trap on the opposite side. # Littler Retains One-Stroke Margin With Sparkling 67

By GEORGE BOWEN

BALTIMORE (AP) — Gene Littler carved five more strokes off par 72 at stormy Pine Ridge Friday for a one-stroke lead halfway through the Eastern Open.

Ed Oliver, the 44-year-old Jolly man of golf, stuck close to Littler, who goes into the third round Saturday with 132 strokes to Oliver's 133.

Each went around the 6,820-yard course in 67 strokes despite tricky conditions caused by rain and wind accompanied by lightning for the second round.

Littler, 28, had a blistering 7-under-par 65 yesterday.

Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., held on to third place although he lost ground. Hawkins was at 135 on rounds of 67-68.

The 48-year-old Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill., moved up to declubbed, using a No. 5 iron, and his tee shot landed in the fourth with the best round of the day, 66 on top of an opening 70.

Bunched at 137 were Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., Billy Maxwell and Bo Winingier of Odesa, Tex., and Dave Ragan of Chattanooga, Tenn.

Littler, for the second straight day, bagged a flock of birdies on the ninth through the 12th holes. He carded his first on the second with a 20-foot putt and picked up another on the fourth with an eight-footer.

The only time he went over par was at the 185-yard 14th. He untrapped. It took him three strokes to hole out.

Littler's second shot at the 523-yard 18th also was trapped, but he escaped with a par 5.

Then he unleashed a second shot within 1 1/2 feet of the 540-yard ninth and putted in for an eagle 3. The gallery pet then rolled in a 25-foot birdie putt on the 10th, followed with a 4-footer on the 11th.

He made a birdie 4 the hard way on the last hole. He tried a driver from a downhill lie for his second shot and it went wide of the green. But he delicately shot over a trap, rolled 12 feet past the hole and putted in from there.

Lawyers Seek Settlement In Fight Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — Lawyers for both sides in the Ingemar Johansson-Eddie Machen suit conferred Friday with Federal Judge Irving Kaufman, it was learned.

Judge Kaufman refused to confirm or deny that a meeting was held in his chambers. He answered a reporter's queries with "absolutely no comment."

It was believed the meeting was held in an attempt to determine whether an agreement or settlement could be made before the judge hands down a decision. Judge Kaufman reserved decision in the case Thursday after hearing testimony since Monday.

Machen, a heavyweight contender from Redding, Calif., seeks an injunction to prevent Johansson from fighting world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson until the Swede fights him (Machen) first. Machen, knocked out by Johansson in one-round last Sept. 14, contends he has a return bout contract. Johansson is scheduled to fight Patterson for the heavyweight title here June 25.

SUMMIT, N.J. (AP) — Betsy Rawls, of Spartanburg, S.C., shot her second straight par 72 Friday and added 19 points in the second round of the $13,100 women's professional Round Robin Tournament at Canoe Brook Country Club.

The 31-year-old Miss Rawls, leading money winner on the circuit this year with $8,300, boosted her total to 33 with three rounds to go.

Tied for second with 19 points apiece were Louise Suggs, who failed to win a point in Thursday's first round, and Betty Jameson, who added 10 points this time.

Patty Berg and Fay Crocker shared fourth place with plus 16. Bonnie Randolph, the first-day pacesetter with 16 points, skidded to an 82, lost 10 points in the in-

New Screen Cuts Homer Rate In AL

KANSAS CITY (AP) — There's an angle to the smaller home run production in the American League this year — a 90 degree straight up angle.

It's the 15-foot screen atop Municipal Stadium's short (330 feet) left field wall. It has robbed a lot of American League long-ball hitters of home runs. The screen lifts the barrier to 45 feet. Originally it was 30.

Only 14 balls have gone over the wire. Twelve got entangled and fell for lesser damage, some mere singles.

Chief victim of the screen is Chicago's Sherm Lollar. His drives have been enmeshed twice. Others who have been dismayed by the angle are Rocky Colavito and George Strickland of Cleveland, Jim Lemon and Roy Sievers of Washington, Eddie Yost of Detroit, Jim Landis, Chicago, Gil McDougald, New York and Dick Gernert, Boston.

Bill Tuttle and Dick Williams of the Kansas City Athletics are the only home club hitters who have been screened out of home runs by the new fence.

Of the 14 blasts over the barrier, honors go to Hector Lopez, now of the New York Yankees, while he still was on the A's roster. He has hit three.

The Yanks Are Coming, Maul Slumping Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—The New York Yankees, playing like world champions once again, routed Cleveland 11-2 Friday night on a blistering 17-hit attack that featured home runs by Gil McDougald and Elston Howard.

The largest crowd of the season in the American League—51,935—watched in virtual silence as the Yankees sent the Indians reeling to their sixth straight defeat. Art Ditmar pitched a strong seven-inning but lost his shutout bid when Billy Martin smacked an eighth inning home run. Rocky Colavito added the final Cleveland run with his 14th home run in the ninth.

The Indians now have lost eight of their last nine games, while the Yankees—leading in the opposite direction—won their seventh in the last eight. The 11 runs were the most scored against Cleveland this season.

Howard, Bill Skowron, Hector Lopez and Norm Siebern each drove in two runs. Every Yankee in the line-up got at least one hit, except Mickey Mantle who drew three walks. Tony Kubek had four hits.

Ditmar, beaten twice previously by the Indians, brought his pitching record to 3-4. Gary Bell, first of four Cleveland pitchers, suffered his fifth defeat against four victories.

The Yankees started the route with a run in the first inning. Mantle walked with two out and scored on singles by Yogi Berra and Skowron. McDougald's second inning home run, his first of the season, made it 2-0.

The Yankees added two runs in the fourth on a walk to Lopez, McDougald's round . rule double and a pair of singles by Ditmar and Siebern.

The barrage continued against Bell in the sixth inning when the Yankees lengthened their lead to 6-0. Lopez singled, stole second and rode home on Howard's home run over the center field fence. It was his seventh four-bagger of the season.

But Podbielan came in to pitch in the seventh inning, but New York treated him no differently. Kubek got a ground-rule double which bounced into the right field stands. Skowron knocked in the seventh run with a single to right.

The Yanks scored four runs in the eighth on doubles by Howard and Siebern and singles by Lopez and Kubek, plus a pair of walks.

Dawson Wins 2nd Straight Seniors' Title

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—Johnny Dawson, 56-year-old Palm Desert, Calif., real estate man, beat the Apawamis Club par by one stroke Friday as he shot a 71 for a 36-hole total of 143 and his second straight U.S. Seniors' Golf Assn. championship.

Dawson, runner-up for the U.S. Amateur title 12 years ago, posted the same score as he did in taking the 1958 title in his first attempt after becoming eligible. He finished five strokes in front of Virgil Roby, West Hartford, Conn., insurance broker who led the first section of the 380 competitors with a 75-73-148 Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. Wolcott Brown of Sea Girt, N.J. was third with a 151. Tied for fourth were George Dawson of Chicago, brother of Johnny, and Walter Pease of Plainfield, N.J. at 152.

Jack Ahern of Hamburg, N.Y., with a 75-78-153, won the class for players between the ages of 60 and 64. Col. Martin J. Lindgrove of Morristown, N.J., also had a 153 (77-76) for first place in the 65-69 age group.

Former champion Joseph Wells of Newell, W.Va., was best of the 70-74 section with a 78-80-158. John Ellis Knowles of Rye, 72, six-time holder of the title, had a 159 for second place in the division won by Newell.

Marine Cracks Javelin Record

COMPTON, Calif. (AP)—Al Cantello, a husky Marine from Quantico, Va., bettered the world javelin record Friday night in the Compton Relays with a toss of 282 feet, 3 1/2 inches. It bettered the world mark of 281 - 2 1/2 set by Norway's Egil Danielson at the Olympic Games in Australia in 1956.

Meet officials said Cantello's toss would be submitted for a record.

Cubs Get 17 Hits To Rout Pirates

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Chicago Cubs lashed 17 hits Friday night in a free-hitting game with the Pittsburgh Pirates won by Chicago 10-5.

The Cubs' hitting attack was paced by home runs off the bats of Dale Long and Ernie Banks. Long's blast, his seventh of the season, came in the first inning. Banks' stroked his 13th homer of the season in the second inning.

The Pirates garnered 14 hit off two Cub hurlers. Dick Stuart smashed a 457-foot home run over the center field wall for two runs in the first inning. The blast was the first ball to clear that point of the wall in the 50-year history of Forbes field.

Glenn Hobbie, who started for the Cubs, was on the ropes in almost every inning in his seven-inning tour of duty. But with the help of relief hurler Don Elston, Hobbie got credit for his sixth victory of the season against five defeats.

Vernon Law, the first of five Pirate pitchers, was charged with

Carbo In Jail While Battling Extradition

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—Ex-convict Frankie Carbo, reputed underworld boxing czar, went to jail Friday while he fights extradition to New York on conspiracy charges.

Carbo, 54, and gray-haired, sat unsmilingly beside his attorney as Judge Benjamin Dzick cancelled a $25,000 bond and remanded him to jail.

A New York City prosecutor, seeking prompt extradition, described him as a "most corrupt, corrosive and degenerating influence on the sport of boxing."

Carbo was arrested Memorial Day trying to sneak out the rear door of a friend's home, while police knocked on the front door. A magistrate first denied bail. Later Judge Dzick fixed the $25,000 figure.

Carbo, long a fugitive, was indicted by a New York grand jury last July 24. He is accused of conspiring to participate in a boxing match as a manager and matchmaker without a license. He also is wanted by the U.S. on federal income tax evasion charges.

Judge Dzick, noting that New Jersey Gov. Robert B. Meyner signed extradition papers, said he had no legal authority to set bail.

The next step, said the judge, is for Carbo to seek freedom on a writ of habeas corpus. He gave Carbo 10 days to file the writ, or he turned over to New York authorities without further hearing.

Wall Injures Ankle, Points To U.S. Open

BALTIMORE (AP)—Golfer Art Wall Jr., one of the favorites for next week's U.S. Open, hurt his right ankle today in the second round of the Eastern Open.

However, the leading money winner on the PGA tour with $33,630, said he will go to Mamaronock, N.Y., next Monday to start practicing for the Open which begins Thursday.

Wall said he turned his ankle on the 17th hole which he birdied in two strokes. Favoring the ankle on the last hole, he puttered around and took nine strokes to wind up with five over par.

Wall, winner of the Masters and two other tournaments this year, shot a 73 Thursday. His total of 150 eliminated him from continuing in the last two rounds in the Eastern Open in which he was defending champion.

It is the first time since January of 1958 that Wall has failed to make the cut off of 60 low scorers for the last two rounds in a PGA tourney.

He said he will go home to Honesdale, Pa., to rest his ankle during the week end.

Ouch!

San Francisco catcher Hobie Landrith registers pain as he jams his fingers on his right hand into the screened backstop at Milwaukee's County Stadium Thursday. He had the ball momentarily trapped between glove and wrist but dropped it. The ball was a pop off the bat of Joe Adcock. (AP Wirephoto)

British Champ Gains Draw With Calhoun

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Tiger, the British Empire middleweight champion, and Rory Calhoun, muscular White Plains, N.Y., mauler battled to a draw Friday night in a bitterly fought 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden.

Calhoun weighed 163 1/2, Tiger 163 1/2 pounds.

It was a tight one all the way with Calhoun taking an early lead Tiger moving out front in the middle rounds and Calhoun closing with a rush. By winning the last round on all three official cards,

Calhoun managed to gain the draw.

Judge Bill Recht scored it 6-3-1 for Tiger, Judge Bill Frost had it 5-4-1 for Calhoun and Referee Mark Conn called it 5-5 in both rounds and points. The Associated Press had it 5-5 with six points for Tiger and five for Calhoun.

It was the American debut of Tiger, a 29-year-old Nigerian whose real name is Dick Ihtu.

There were no knockdowns although both men were wobbled as the lead changed back and fourth between the two earnest scrapers.

Calhoun, fighting flatfooted, concentrated on body punching in the early stage while Tiger proved to be a head hunter. Rory switched to the head in the sixth which he won on all cards.

With Calhoun still banging away to the head, Tiger was able to out-fight him in the seventh and eighth. The Tiger was catching

PODRES WINS SIXTH

Bums Continue Spell Over Spahn, Top Milwaukee, 5-1

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers continued their long-time hex over Milwaukee's Warren Spahn Friday night as Johnny Podres spaced seven hits for a 5-1 victory over the Braves.

The fourth-place Dodgers closed to within 4 1/2 games of the National League leading Braves by rapping Spahn for nine hits and four of their runs in the seven innings that he worked before County Stadium's largest crowd since the opening day—30,826.

The Dodgers, the only team with a life-time edge over Spahn, have defeated him 27 times while losing only 14 down through the years.

Spahn dropped his second straight of the season to Los Angeles while failing to notch his 25th National League victory. He is 7-6 for the season.

Podres, a curve-ball left-hander, struck out five while walking only one in registering his sixth victory against two defeats.

The Dodgers wasted little time getting to Spahn, scoring a run in the first inning, two in the second and a fourth in the fifth. Jim Gilliam doubled on the first pitch of the game and scored on Gil Hodges' single. The Braves tied it in the same inning on a double by Casey Wise, an infield out that got Wise to third and a sacrifice fly by Hank Aaron.

In the second Joe Pignatano beat out a bouncer to Eddie Mathews and when the Braves third baseman threw high to first Joe went to second. Podres singled, scoring Pignatano. Podres went to second on an infield out and scored on Charlie Neal's single.

The fourth Los Angeles run came on doubles by Charlie Neal and Hodges in the fifth.

Los Angeles got to Milwaukee relief pitcher Joey Jay for their fifth run in the ninth inning on a walk to Gilliam and a double by Neal down the right field line. It was Neal's third hit.

Tea In Lafayette Honors Miss Truley Ann Chapman

Miss Truley Ann Chapman, whose engagement to Patrick Alton Juneau, Jr. has recently been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Chapman of West Monroe, was formally introduced to Lafayette society Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Patrick A. Juneau, Sr. was hostess at an announcement tea honoring her.

Mrs. Juneau received the guests in the living room. A large mirror above the white mantle reflected the mantle's floral arrangement of pink peonies, white gladioli, and white stock and made a lovely background for the receiving line.

Guests were ushered to the register as they entered. The antique marble topped table where the register and pen were placed held also an old fashioned bouquet of pink and white peonies and white stock. In its center nestled a white "love bird" carrying two small pearl intertwined hearts.

IN WEST GERMANY

Adenauer Wins Leadership Fight

BONN. Germany (AP)—Tough-willed Konrad Adenauer beat down an incipient rebellion among his followers Friday and won their approval if his decision to keep the helm of West Germany's government.

It wasn't easy, this justification of his surprise announcement that

F. Worthen lot 17 of block 16 of the Pargoud Place addition No. 4 for $27,000.

John B. McMillan, et al, sold to William C. Reid, Jr., lot 11 of square 4 of the J. F. Heard's First Addition to West Monroe for $3,000.

Mrs. Ida Case Entrican sold to James Marco Entrican all the undivided one-half interest in the Clarence Joseph Entrican property for $7,500.

he is remaining Chancellor and isn't going to run for the presidency after all.

But the 83-year-old leader argued in effect that he is the indispensable man at this juncture of history, not one to be shelved in the largely ceremonial job from which President Theodor Heuss is retiring in September.

There were four hours of stormy debate among Parliament members of Adenauer's dominant Christian Democratic party. Qualified informants said about 60 per cent were against the switch, but finally bowed to his decision.

The party secretary, Wil Rasner, told newsmen the vote was then unanimous to back Adenauer's turnabout from his presidential candidacy, announced April 8.

The outcome means Adenauer is set to continue in the chancellorship at least until the 1961 national election, and his party must hustle to find another candidate for president. The new president is due to be elected by a Federal Assembly July 1.

The reaction of some Germans was violent. Opposition leaders declared it was an open power grab.

There was uneasy silence among Western diplomats dickering with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at Geneva.

They said they could not comment formally because any suggestion of outside interference would cause resentment in Bonn. But it was recalled privately that Adenauer's April decision to move upstairs and clear the way for development of new government leaders was welcomed among Western official experts on Germany.

One of their fears in recent years has been that if death or illness removed Adenauer from office a paralyzing crisis might result from a struggle for the succession in West Germany, one of the strongest members of the North Atlantic Alliance.

AT TODAY'S MEET

Postal Officers To Be Elected

New officers of the Louisiana-Mississippi Association of Postal Supervisors and Ladies Auxiliary will be elected during this morning's business sessions, as the 16th annual convention goes into its final day here with nearly 200 delegates.

Elections will take place in the Green Room and Riviera Room of the Penn Hotel, headquarters for the three-day confab.

Following the 9 a.m. sessions, an afternoon business meet will get underway at 1 p.m.

Final activity of the day will be at 7 p.m., when new officers will be presented at a banquet, followed by dancing at 9:30 p.m.

Mrs. Ambrose Houy, national secretary of the auxiliary from Rockford, Ill., A. L. "Bud" Sellers, second vice-president of the association, Fort Worth, Tex., and James R. Martin, regional controller, post office department, Dallas, Tex., will be featured speakers during the evening.

The problem of obscene literature sent through the mails was discussed yesterday during the 2½-hour general assembly at the Penn.

Martin, one of ten postal officials who spoke during the session, warned that a "flood" of obscene pictures and literature is being sent through the mail, with much of it directed at teenagers.

"The post office department is making a nationwide drive to stop this flood of obscene literature, filthy pictures, records and books being sent to the kids," he stressed.

Pointing out that the "big business of pornography" runs into about $500 million a year for the distributors, he asked that parents "save wrappers and envelopes of the obscene literature which comes into their homes and take it to their postmasters."

Martin explained that many youngsters' names are taken off various mailing lists, including school graduation lists.

R. J. Patterson, regional personnel manager, post office department, Memphis, Tenn., discussed the abilities needed by supervisors in their work, and listed them as "the ability to question, interpret, observe and listen."

SUPERVISOR

"A good supervisor should be very apt at questioning and listening," he stated.

Mrs. Houy, speaking during the morning session, related the history and growth of the auxiliary. "It's most important function" is to make legislators aware of the merit of any bills beneficial to postal supervisors, she commented.

Addresses of welcome were given by Monroe Mayor W. L. "Jack" Howard, West Monroe Mayor J. Allan Norris, Postmaster Woodrow W. Hathorn of Monroe and Homer B. Roark of West Monroe, and Jim Williams, executive secretary of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce.

Following an open forum for the association's officials and a luncheon and boat ride for the ladies, convention delegates attended a fish fry at the American Legion Home at 6 p.m.

Parish-Wide 4-H Meeting Slated Here

A parish-wide 4-H sub-committee meeting is slated Tuesday in the auditorium of the agricultural building in West Monroe.

The meet, scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., will include representatives from all parish areas, who will set up next year's tentative 4-H program.

Directing the event will be Elliot Branch, assistant county agent, and Miss Glenda Willet, associate home demonstration agent.

A short talk is to be given by Wayne Shipp, president of the 4-H council, on the present over-all farm situation in the parish 4-H area.

ASKS BAR ON PEERS

LONDON (UPI)—The House of Lords called Friday for a rule barring insane peers from its sessions. One member cited an unnamed peer who was found "incapable of managing his own affairs but was free to manage the affairs of the nation."

New Stamp

Gravel To Be Shipped Here On Ouachita

An agreement to ship gravel by barge from Calion, Ark., to West Monroe has just been completed which will more than justify the economic requirements necessary for assuring the nine-foot channel on the Ouachita River, H. K. Thatcher, executive vice-president of the Ouachita River Valley Association, has announced.

Thatcher said the agreement specifically calls for the shipping of 220,000 tons of gravel down river annually, thus adding 22 million ton miles to the Ouachita River shipping records annually.

He tabbed the agreement as the "most welcome bit of shipping insurance for our navigation project" on the Ouachita River.

The agreement was sealed between the Moro Gravel Company of Warren, Ark., and the Arkansas Towing Company, Calion. The towing company will use two tow boats and eight barges.

6 New Wells Reported In Monroe Area

Six new locations in the 14-parish Monroe District were reported yesterday to the local office of the Louisiana Department of Conservation, according to Duncan S. Cook, manager.

In Concordia Parish R. A. Campbell staked three of the new well sites. They are Miller A-8 and State of La. D-3, both in section 40, township 8 north, range 10 east, and Miller A-9 in section 43, township 8 north, range 10 east. All are in Clayton Field.

Miller A-9 and State of La. D-3 will be drilled down to 5,600 feet and Miller A-8 to 6,000 ft.

STAKED

The Jett Drilling Co., Inc. staked a wildcat, the J. D. Cook Heirs No. 1, in section 21, township 21 north, range 3 west of Union Parish. This well will go down to 5,375 feet.

Another deep gas well will be drilled down to 9,850 feet in section 29, township 18 north, range 1 east of Ouachita Parish by the Sinclair Oil and Gas Co. It is the G. F. Butler No. 1.

Justiss Mears Oil Co. located their Tremont D-13 in section 12, township 9 north, range 1 east in LaSalle Parish's Olla Field. Total depth approved is 3,500 feet.

employing a minimum of 18 men, Thatcher added. One hundred miles of river lies between Calion and West Monroe.

Chiropractors Denied Test Case Trial

SHREVEPORT (Special)—Two Monroe chiropractors challenging the state medical practice act as unconstitutional were denied a test case trial in federal court here yesterday.

Chiropractors L. T. Murphy and R. E. Harvey petitioned to transfer to higher court after a Monroe grand jury cited a criminal indictment against them for unlawful medical practice. The two contended the state acts violate the U. S. 14th amendment, making it a federal case.

Judge Ben C. Dawkins Jr. said the Louisiana State Supreme Court already has upheld the state medical practice act they attack as unconstitutional.

He added in his ruling that their proper recourse would be the state courts and the U. S. Supreme Courts if necessary, where state appellate court rulings on federal questions are reviewed.
